ST. HELEN'S HALL

DEDICATION

MISS RITA SHIELDS

We, the class of 1960, affectionately dedicate this, our Delphic, to one who has inspired us to pursue higher educational goals as an adviser, a helper, and a friend. The qualities she possesses exemplify the ideals of St. Helen's Hall. With humble respect we acknowledge the constant example set for us by Miss Rita Shields.

A MESSAGE FROM THE BISHOP

I am sure that the fundamental reaction of those privileged to be graduated from St. Helen's Hall is one of gratitude—not gratitude because you are leaving, but gratitude for what has been your privilege. We have been concerned throughout your days here with the whole personality—body, mind, and spirit. The whole personality is also God's concern. Young people are sent to St. Helen's Hall because parents want no part of their children's latent potentialities neglected or allowed to wither. No parent can do more than provide a child with as good an opportunity as he can for him to develop the body, the mind, and the soul. All parents with insight into the factors that do most to utilize the potentialities of their children feel inadequate and frustrated. Most parents wish they could go back and bring up the same child again.

There are so many characteristics and potentialities which could have been aided or abetted in ways different from those used; so many unfinished buildings; so many mansions that we feel could be more stately. It is characteristic of good parents that they suffer a guilt complex about their parenthood. Gratitude, then, is your response to parents and teachers and friends who try to give you the best in life.

We hope that we have made you intellectually curious. We hope that we have stimulated in you a hunger and thirst for righteousness. We hope that we have developed in you some measure of self-control.

May God bless you all as the days unfold. May you always be proud of St. Helen's Hall and worthy of her heritage. Our world desperately needs young ladies who have been given your opportunities.

ADMINISTRATION

GERTRUDE HOUK FARISS
Director

This year, in addition to the new students, we welcomed three new teachers to the Hall. Mrs. Judy Charlton and Miss Josephine Day instructed the freshmen in English and history. Mrs. LaDonna Hutchinson, instructor of physical science, biology, and chemistry, replaced Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, who is on a leave of absence for the year teaching at the U.S. Air Force Base near Reykjavik, Iceland.

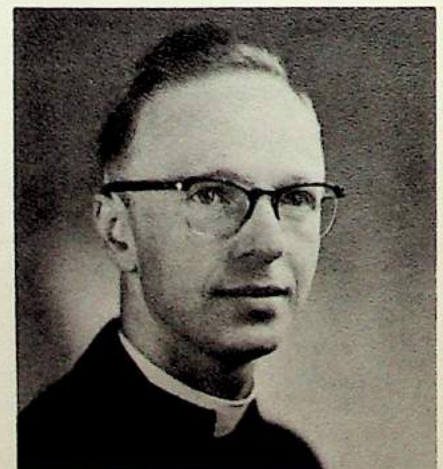

Besides being our teachers, friends, and confidants, the faculty works "above and beyond the call of duty" preparing college recommendations for us. We will always be indebted and grateful for their generous help.

FRESHMEN

Those young, impressionable freshmen had an eventful year. They suffered the terrors of initiation and of dance cleanup committees with humor and good sportsmanship. They even remained brave enough to undertake the Senior Commencement Tea, which we will always remember with fondness and—we hate to admit it—sentimentality.

SOPHOMORES

In nine short months the sophomores did much to make us proud of them. They led, by a considerable margin, all other classes in their contributions to the United Fund; they made charming bids for the Christmas formal; and they gave "Forget-Me-Not," which was indeed an unforgettable dance.

JUNIORS

The junior class was perhaps the busiest one raising money for the many activities which they sponsor. Their annual Red Letter Week festivities were full of fun and excitement, climaxed by the Red Letter Day Dance and the crowning of the "Belle of St. Helen's," Diana Fanning. Their food sales and car washes helped to raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom. This year's Prom, Mint Essence, was held in the Crystal Ballroom of the Benson Hotel. Congratulations, juniors, for adding so much color and gaiety to the year.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

RECESSIONAL The Helenas members have the honor of carrying the Cross and flags which precede the choir in the daily Morning Chapel.

Our school life centers around our Chapel. Each morning a brief Matins begins the school day, twice a week Evensong is held by the boarders, and Wednesday morning the Holy Eucharist is held for communicants of the Episcopal Church. The spiritual guidance which we receive will always remain with us.

MARY CHAPEL for private meditation

COMMUNION SERVICE on Wednesday mornings.

EVENING CHAPEL conducted by senior boarders.

ACADEMICS

Daily classes provide our intellectual nourishment. Lively discussions, lab experiments, work on those term papers—all make each school day a challenge.

Unfortunately the major production of the drama class, The Letters of Elizabeth Barrett to Robert Browning, came too late in the school year to include a pictorial account in the book.

CHEMISTRY LAB Sue Goold experimenting with sulfuric acid.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION I Mrs. Collétt showing pictures of the Prophets to the freshmen.

MUSIC APPRECIATION Mrs. Harrington explaining a new record.

ALGERBA I Miss Paige helping the freshman work square roots.

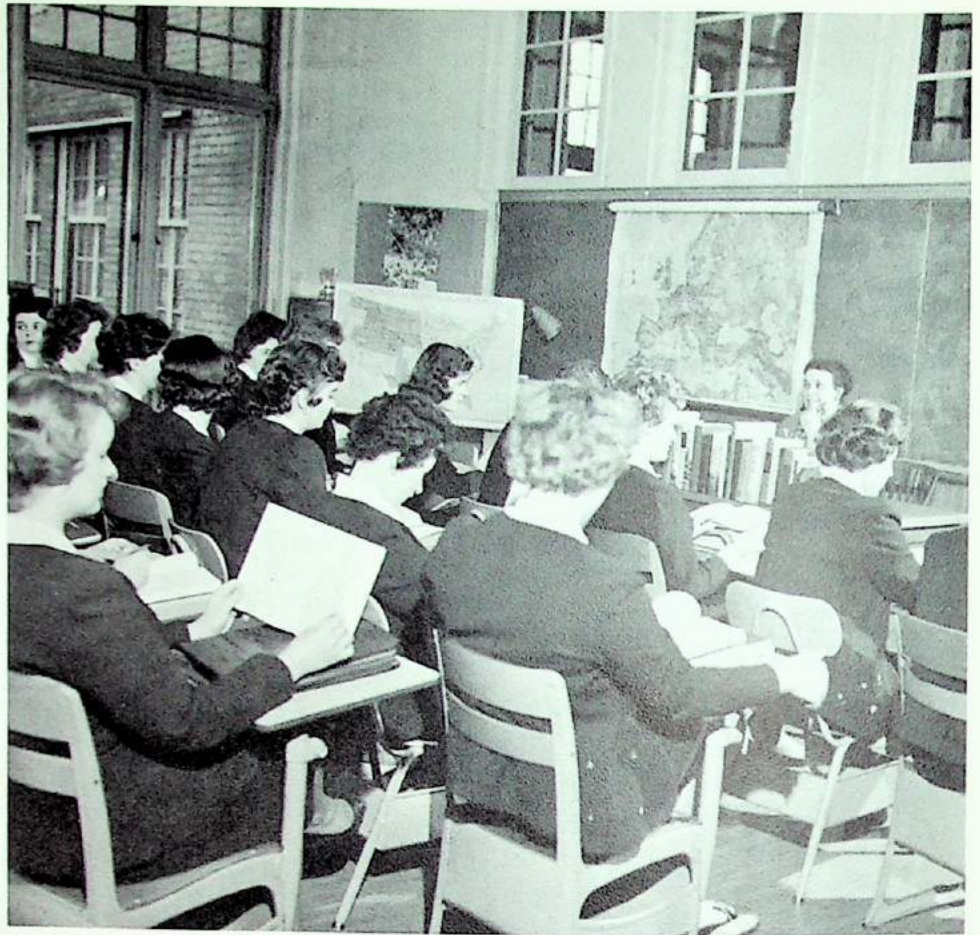

FRENCH II Madame Wolfson leading a group in conversational French.

THE FRONT HALL BETWEEN CLASSES

STUDY HALL Juniors studying the exams.

HISTORY IV Miss McKirdie discussing the Treaty of Versailles with the seniors.

BIOLOGY LAB Sophomores and juniors researching on guinea pigs and looking at blood through microscopes.

ART Sharol Atkinson posing for a two-minute sketch.

OPEN HOUSE

Open House this year gave the parents and guests a feeling of being back in school when they visited the Fine Arts classes in action during their production of Scenes and Songs. An informal coffee hour followed the performance and classroom tour.

A. Mrs. Wolfson and Diane Terjeson proudly demonstrate St. Helen's Hall's new language machine to Mrs. Matthew McKirdie. By listening to foreign phrases and repeating after the taped voice, students can perfect their accents and comprehension in foreign languages more readily.

B. A course in speed reading and comprehension designed to improve the skills of both rapid and slow readers was given this year. Carolyn Van Winkle and Darl Litchfield are shown being timed by Miss Siringier.

C. Karen Bromberg, Judy McDonald, Ditti Weinel, Judy McKee, and Julie Mack interpret "blinking neon signs" during Scenes and Songs.

ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT COUNCIL

Standing: Vicky Justice, Judy McKee, Pam Holfert, Sally Stevens, Judy Carson, Pam Hillgen, Ditti Weinel, Julie Mack, Roberta Wright,
Sitting: Annette Gaither, Vice-President; Jane Brown, Treasurer;

Gayle McDonald, Corresponding Secretary; Miss Irene Campbell, Adviser; Diane Terjeson, President; Vicki Joslyn, Secretary.

This year the Student Council, in addition to sponsoring assemblies and dances, began a new project. This project is directed by the Foreign Affiliation Committee. The Hall is now affiliated with Arundel School in South Rhodesia, Africa, and the two student bodies have been exchanging letters, scrapbooks, and academic exhibits. Future plans include exchanging teachers and students.

FOREIGN AFFILIATION

BOARDERS' COUNCIL

Seated: Mrs. Strahan, Adviser; Pamela Holfert, President; Carol Pope, Penny Jo Davis, Vice-President. Standing: Mary Jane Dobson, Treasurer;

Jimmie K. Moe, Sergeant-at-Arms; Annette Gaither, Sue White, Janice Parker, Secretary.

The Boarders' Council helps maintain a harmonious atmosphere in the residence department, both by enforcing high conduct standards and by encouraging social events. The highlights of boarding life were the Talent Show in Senior House; the costume Halloween party; and a gloriously unchaperoned Boarders' Birthday Dinner preceded by "coketails" in the Blue Room.

HELENAS

Helenas is an honor society and service organization. The members are chosen for their scholastic achievements, character, and leadership. With the guidance of their adviser, Mrs. Fariss, they have quietly attempted to improve the school atmosphere by helping where service was needed. This year the members have assisted in Chapel services, helped in the library by cataloguing books, reading shelves and checking in returned books. They also have served as study hall proctors and have undertaken assorted jobs like cleaning the fish pond.

Row 1: Roberta Wright, Sally Stevens, Lydia Reynolds. Row 2: Annette Gaither, Jimmie K.

ALTAR GUILD

OFFICERS—Jimmie K. Moe, Treasurer; Miss Carolyn Paige, Adviser; Barbara Gillespie, Secretary; Sally Stevens, President.

The chapel, of which we are so proud, is the special charge of the Altar Guild. The members keep the linen and vestments clean, the brass gleamingly polished, and beautiful flowers at the altar.

POLISHING BRASS—Annette Gaither, Barbara Baker, Sue Gould, Mary Jane Dobson.

GLEE CLUB

Our choir, the Glee Club, was quite active this year. Its members sang in morning chapel, and in various hospitals at Christmas time, and even on television!

Delphic 1960 has had a hectic year acquiring money, choosing a theme, taking pictures, writing copy, organizing layout, pasting up, cutting wood blocks, and meeting deadlines. We hope that we have presented a true picture of personalities and school events.

Kneeling: Beckie Green, Evelyn French, Lynn Furlong, Gayle McDonald, Jane Brown.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

Seated: Evelyn French, Secretary; Julie Mack, President; Mrs. Florence Thompson, Adviser; Mary Jane Dobson, Treasurer; Janice Parker, Vice-President.
Standing: Barbara Torango, Joanne Dobson, Francie Bodmer, Ditti Weinel, Carol Lundy, Marcia DuBois, Beverly Torango.

The Junior Red Cross, under the guidance of Mrs. Florence Thompson, prepared its members to take over our responsibilities in an adult world. Julie Mack, President, represented the Hall at the summer training center and at a workshop at the Red Cross Chapter House. Among its worthwhile achievements was a Thanksgiving basket for the needy.

ATHLETIC COMMISSION

The Athletic Commission, headed by Lee Ann Alfred, is in charge of planning the volleyball and ping-pong games for the entire student body. They also act as referees at the various games. Mrs. Daret is the commission's adviser.

Row 1: Lee Ann Alfred, Chairman; Lindy Samuelson, Judy Carson, Dorothy Wise.
Row 2: Terry Hardwick, Jimmie K. Moe, Roberta Wright, Sally Stevens.
Row 3: Mrs. Helga Daret, Adviser; Carolyn Van Winkle, Sharon Parks, Julie Mack, Barbara Gillespie.

ATHLETICS

Our student body is divided into two teams, the Clicks and the Rougettes. The teams compete in volleyball games for the possession of Benji Dee, our school mascot.

TEAM I

INTERMURAL ATHLETICS

In intermural sports, St. Helen's Hall participated in Play Day and the City Volleyball League. Play Day this year was held at Catlin Gabel, where the Hall met with teams from Helen Bush, St. Nicholas, Annie Wright Seminary, and Catlin Gabel. With these independent schools, our team matched athletic skill and sportsmanship.

The City Volleyball League is composed of teams from Portland public high schools. The Hall's three teams—A, B1, and B2—returned with the championship trophy after a five years' absence from the League.

SOCIAL

NEW GIRL—OLD GIRL TEA

At the very beginning of the school year the Old Girl—New Girl Tea welcomes both old acquaintances and new friends.

Student Body President Diane Terjeson serves punch to Mary Gibson, Jane Brown, Susan Gedney, and Gayle McDonald.

SENIOR DINNER

Early in the fall, the senior class began their final year with the traditional Senior Dinner. Preceded by "coke-tails" and hors d'oeuvres in the Blue Room, the dinner was full of the spirit of gay reunion.

JUNIOR RED LETTER

San Pan Alley was the theme of the annual Junior Red Letter Day Dance, which had an oriental atmosphere. Diana Fanning reigned as the Belle of St. Helen's. The dance climaxed a week of pleasant and festive activities accredited to the junior class.

Foreground: Mary Hafner and Dirk Keller, Barbara Torango and Don Currier, Babs Bruhlman and unidentified escort.

CHRISTMASTIDE

Foreground, facing: Dorothy Wise, Lindy Samuelson, Beckie Green, Lee Ann Alfred, Julie Mack, Terry Hardwick, Jimmie K. Moe.

DINNER

The week before Christmas vacation is filled with holiday activities. The halls, class rooms, and dorms are resplendent with gay decorations, and Senior House makes a charming setting for the tea given by the Parents Group.

This year before the Christmas Dinner and Santa's annual visit to students and faculty, a memorable candlelight service was held in the chapel.

DANCE

Strictly Santa, the theme for the Christmas formal dance, sponsored by the Student Council, was carried out with a life-sized Santa resting in his workshop.

Foreground: Vera Farinas and unidentified escort, Judy McKee and Jim Lawrence, Vicky Justice and Dick Keller, Diane Terjeson and Thomas Anderson.

The Light of the World

The beautiful Christmas play, The Light of the World, sent us home with a renewed appreciation of the gift of the Christ Child.
Choir: Lee Ann Alfred, Lucy Crenshaw, Beckie Green, Lindy Samuelson, Jean Wienert, Diane Terjeson, Carolyn Speerstra, Janice Parker.

Cast: Julie Mack, Karen Bromberg, Lydia Reynolds, Judy McKee, Pam Seaman, Gayle McDonald, Judy Carson, Ditti Weinle.

FATHER-DAUGHTER DINNER

Row 1: Mr. Davis, Mr. Gaither, Annette Gaither, Diana Fanning, Mr. Fanning, Mary Gibson, Barbara Gillespie, Mr. Gillespie, Mary Jane Dobson. Row 2: Carolyn Van Winkle, Mr. Van Winkle, Sue Goold, The Rev. Mr. Goold, Terry Hardwick, Mr. Mack, Julie Mack, Roberta Wright, Mrs. Oja. Standing: Mr. Bigler, Pam Hillgen, Mr. Oja, Kathy Oja, Mr. Perryman, Lynn Perryman, Mr. Thompson, Susan Gedney.

Good food, entertainment, and—most of all—the presence of our fathers made the Father-Daughter Dinner a gala occasion. We were privileged to have John Merrifield as our Master of Ceremonies and Bishop Dagwell as our guest speaker.

FORGET-ME-NOT

Forget-Me-Not, a sophomore-sponsored dance, was held in February. The dress was casual, the decorations original. A wonderful time was had dancing to records spun by disc-jockey Red Robinson. What's more, the sophomores actually made money!

Foreground: Judy McDonald and John Tuhy. Dancing: Diana Fanning and Dick Tickner; Carolyn Speerstra and Jerry Walker; Susan Gedney and Kerry Williams; Barbara Torango and unidentified escort.

MAY COURT

*Row 1: Princess Judy Carson, Princess Judy McKee, Princess Diane Terjeson.
Row 2: Princess Sharon Parks, Queen Virginia Schaill, Princess Jane Brown.

The music sounded, the curtains parted, and the Mistress of Ceremonies, Lynn Perryman, stepped forward to introduce the six May princesses and lovely Queen Virginia I. When the coronation ceremonies were completed and the Queen had settled herself upon her throne, the entertainment—including music, dramatics, and dancing—began. Later in the evening, Queen Virginia and her court reigned at the Royal Ball. The theme, Soir de Paris, was carried out with decorations of sidewalk cafes and shops, and flower carts laden with springtime blossoms.

A MASQUE OF MAY

On Walpurgis Night, May Day Eve, the forces of evil endeavored to fight off the advances of Spring with its promises of rebirth and rejuvenation. A Masque of May retold this legend in song, dance, and story.

SENIORS

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

We emerged from our freshman year confused, brow-beaten, and humbled by it all. Through a dance in our sophomore year, "Sweethearts' Swirl," which appealed to romantically minded student body, we regained status. Encouraged, we plunged into our junior year with a car wash, Red Letter Week, and a spaghetti dinner—all contributing to our major production—the Junior-Senior Prom.

Our Senior year we found to be the most rewarding of all. We "slaved away" on Delphic and on school work but still found time to draw the student body closer with a dinner for the freshmen and our senior sponsored Friendship Week. But we found the high point to be "Senior Sneak" at Sharon Parks' cabin in Delake.

Commencement came at last and we greeted it with gladness for what was ahead, and yet with sadness for what cannot be regained.

SENIORS IN GRAY

Lee Ann Alfred, Beckie Green, Carol Pope, Dorothy Wise, Lindy Samuelson, Donna Bookhultz, Lynn Furlong, Jimmie K. Moe, Terry Hardwick, Carolyn Van Winkle, Judy Carson, Pam

Every Friday morning Second Semester, the seniors don gray caps and gowns to signify that graduation is approaching.

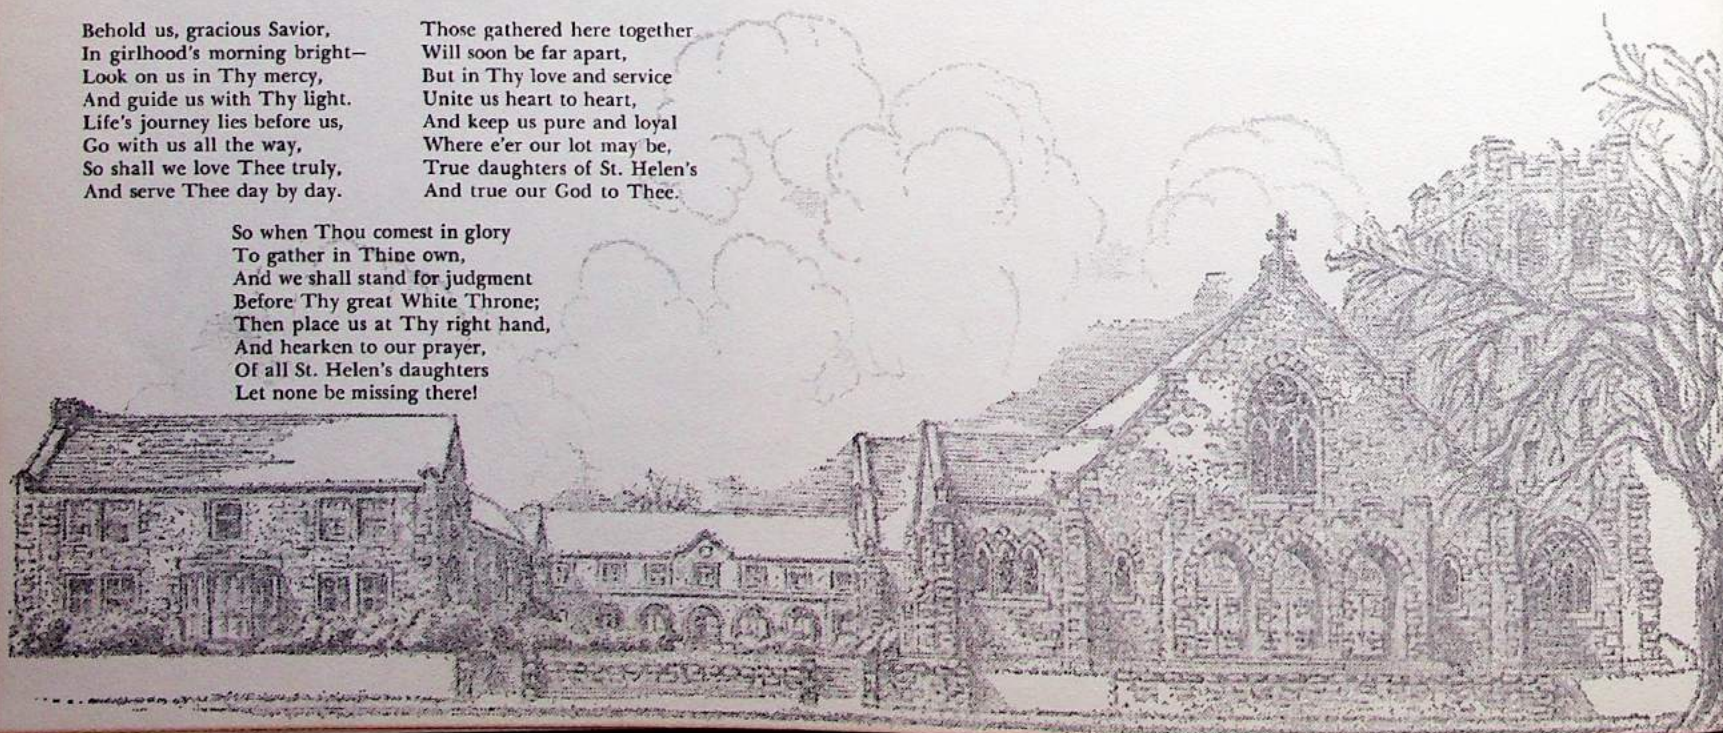

TRINITY CHURCH, the scene of graduation for the girls of St. Helen's Hall, blends all its dignity to the strains of Pomp and Circumstance, signifying the close of another year.

BEHOLD US, GRACIOUS SAVIOR

Behold us, gracious Savior,
In girlhood's morning bright—
Look on us in Thy mercy,
And guide us with Thy light.
Life's journey lies before us,
Go with us all the way,
So shall we love Thee truly,
And serve Thee day by day.

Those gathered here together
Will soon be far apart,
But in Thy love and service
Unite us heart to heart,
And keep us pure and loyal
Where e'er our lot may be,
True daughters of St. Helen's
And true our God to Thee.

So when Thou comest in glory
To gather in Thine own,
And we shall stand for judgment
Before Thy great White Throne;
Then place us at Thy right hand,
And hearken to our prayer,
Of all St. Helen's daughters
Let none be missing there!

Hi Ho
Star? etc seen a great year, Lydia,
and making it such for you probably won't have any

Being on Olds and King's Hi-Board this year has indeed been an honor and privilege, and I have gained a very rewarding experience that I will never forget. Meeting many new friends from different schools, going to slumber parties, the mountains, the beach, modeling in fashion shows, and working as a salesgirl are some of the many wonderful activities that have helped to make my senior year full of many wonderful memories. I wish to thank Olds and King for all they have done for me throughout the year. Congratulations to the new Hi-Board member and I hope you will profit as much from this experience as I have.

Dear Students:

We have endeavored to please you and we hope you like us as well as we liked working for you.

If in the future you have need of good photographs taken by a professional photographer, we do specialize in personal portraits, family groups, restoring old treasured photographs, and complete coverage of weddings, formal and candid.

We shall look forward to seeing you when you again need photographs.
To the student body our sincere appreciation for their cooperation.

To the graduating class may we take this opportunity to wish you happiness and success in the future that lies before you.
