CLASS HISTORY

When remembering our freshmen year, we find it hard to believe that we actually thought our days were busy and confusing. Perhaps it was the time spent becoming accustomed to high school and the Hall. The only projects we knew were raising money for the Delphic and establishing a financial status that would aid us in the more expensive upperclassmen years. With our sophomore year came our dance, "Oriental Evening," a dinner for the graduating seniors and a beach trip in which the class was drawn together as a friendly working unit. The junior year found us with many more activities for our spare time. Red Letter Week and dance, another dinner for the graduating seniors and the Junior-Senior Prom were our largest and most rewarding projects.

Senior year with its privileges and responsibilities gave us infinitely more activities. Social projects were the dinner for the boarding department, decorating for the Christmas formal, "Chateau Noel," a dinner for the freshmen at Barbara Christensen's home, and our senior day which was held at the Anderson cabin in the mountains near Kalama, Washington. On the more serious side we have published the Delphic and with our senior gift have established a fund to assist the newly introduced exchange program with Rhodesia, South Africa. Breathing a sigh of half relief and half regret, we close this our finished history.

SENIOR PROPHECY

Here it is, 1965, and letters are pouring in to Mrs. Fariss from the Class of '59. These six years have scattered our girls to the four corners. The list is coming out right now, so let's check and see what the '59er's are doing!

CAPPIE BOWEN has made a big name for herself solving the world's problems as the successor to "Dear Abby."

JUNA HAYES has realized her greatest desire—the establishment of the Bay City Cafe Expresso.

SHEILA FINK is in Africa using her three doctoral degrees to cure rare water buffalo diseases.

The greatest '59er talent, BARBARA CHRISTENSEN, is living in the lap of luxury from the royalties of her smash hit, "Autumn Leaves."

LINDA NASH has returned to the Blackfoot Reservation in Montana, where she is raising sheep and living off government subsidies.

HELEN BEECHER has a profitable business selling palm trees to homesick Tahititians.

PAT HARRIMAN, as you have probably all heard, is secretary to Nikita Khrushchev.

SALLY BOWE is happily pumping gas in Grants Pass.

JILL NEUBERT, true to her academic calling, is the spelling teacher at St. Helen's Hall.

ALICE HARRINGTON found her life work playing the tambourine for the Salvation Army.

MARTHA BOYER is a prominent member of the beat generation and is first Lady Mayor of North Beach.

JEANETTE ANDERSON has moved to Texas, where she owns a 200-acre horse ranch.

CLAUDIA WELCH is basking in the sunshine of Hawaii and is managing a Pineapple Plantation.

The Rt. Rev. SUE STEVENS has become the first Lady Bishop of the Diocese of Oregon.

MARCIA LESSING, our favorite family woman, is now the old-fashioned mother of twelve children.

VAL JOSLYN, now engaged for the fifteenth time, has no immediate plans for the future.

So here is a salute to the '59er's. May their lives always be filled with happiness and joy.

IN MEMORIAM

ROSALIE SPARROW

"What is lovely never dies, but passes into other loveliness, star-dust, or sea-foam, flower, or winged air."

Rosalie Sparrow is remembered with warmth and affection by all the girls who knew her. Walking to class with her, playing baseball with her in the spring sunshine, or just sitting and talking with her, gave you the feeling of happiness to know such a kind, thoughtful person. Rosalie's cheerful smile, welcoming gesture and genuine interest in others won all to her.

MORNING COMMUNION

Every morning before classes begin, the school gathers for Morning Chapel to praise God and to gain strength and wisdom to live the new day to its fullest. On Wednesdays an early celebration of Holy Communion is held for communicants of the Episcopal Church where senior girls have the opportunity to serve as acolytes, and once a semester a Choral Eucharist is sung by the whole student body. All boarders meet twice a week for Evening Chapel, a time of quiet worship the girls always treasure. The privilege and honor of conducting this service goes to the seniors. The small Mary Chapel is always available for private meditation and prayer.

MARY RODNEY AWARD

The climax of the presentation of school honors on Class Day comes with the announcement of the winner of the Mary Rodney Award. This honor, named for the school's founding principal, is conferred on the graduating senior who has best reflected the qualities of character and decorum which have been the standards of the "Hall" throughout its ninety years. Her selection is made by the principal and faculty.

ALUMNAE AWARD

Each year the St. Helen's Hall Alumnae Association gives a tea honoring the new graduates and welcoming them to membership. It is at this time that the Alumnae Award is presented to the senior who has consistently demonstrated loyalty to school ideals and traditions, selfless school and community service, constructive leadership, and sound scholarship.

DAGWELL CUP

The upperclassman who—in the opinion of her fellow students, the faculty, and administrative staff—has tried to exemplify Christian character throughout her everyday life during the school year receives the Dagwell Cup. The announcement of the winner is made by the Bishop at the Helenas Chapel in May. Her name is inscribed on the permanent trophy, and on Class Day she receives a replica of this cherished cup.

MARY AWARD

The junior or senior who plays the role of the Holy Mother in the traditional Nativity observance is chosen by the student body and school staff. Gentleness of manner combined with a radiance of strong inner faith and beauty are the guiding principles in the selection of the school's Mary. This year the honor went to Sue Goad.

OLD GIRL - NEW GIRL TEA

September marks the opening of school with the Old Girl-New Girl Tea, where lasting acquaintances are made and old friendships are renewed.

RED LETTER DAY DANCE

Bohemian is the only word that describes the first dance of the fall, and finale to the Junior Red Letter Week. Donna Bookhultz reigned as the Belle of St. Helen's.

CHRISTMAS DANCE AND DINNER

During the week before Christmas vacation, the Hall is transformed into a Christmas wonderland by a whirl of festive activities. Red roses and fir boughs gaily bedecked "Chateau Noel," our formal dance which started off the week. The Senior boarders decorated their rooms in the holiday spirit and the rest of the boarding department competed for prizes by decorating their doors. The day students also joined in the festivities by decorating the doors of the classrooms. The week ended by a banquet in Scadding Hall where Santa paid a visit and there were gifts for all.

CHRISTMAS PLAY

The Christmas program, The Light of the World, presented by the speech classes and glee club, directed by Mrs. Collett and Mrs. Harrington, expressed meaningfully and movingly the true spirit and significance of Christ's Nativity.

OPEN HOUSE

In celebration of the Hall's Ninetieth Birthday, Mrs. Collett wrote and directed "Shucksford Hall Daze," a light and amusing satire on Hall life. The presentation of the play was preceded by open house in both Upper and Lower schools, and, following the play, refreshments were served.

The Birthday Cake, which played a great part in the two evenings' festivities, was a model of the old Hall building, created and decorated by Madame Irene Wolfson.

DADS' AND DAUGHTERS' DINNER

The girls and their fathers spent a delightful evening together enjoying a delicious dinner and a detailed speech on the life of Abraham Lincoln, by Mr. Herman Boyer.

IDYLLS FOR THE MAY QUEEN

Judy McDonald as Puck

Returning to the customs and practices of Elizabethan celebrations of May Day, Hall girls made merry all day, observing the rites even to the early rising to gather flowers for decorations. In the afternoon came the traditional crowning of the May Queen and the investiture of her court, followed by the presentation of Idylls for the May Queen—a medley of English madrigals, maypole dancing, and scenes from Twelfth Night, As You Like it, and Midsummer Night's Dream. In the evening the festivities continued with a formal ball honoring the queen and her court with Van Armitage's orchestra.

THE ROYAL BALL

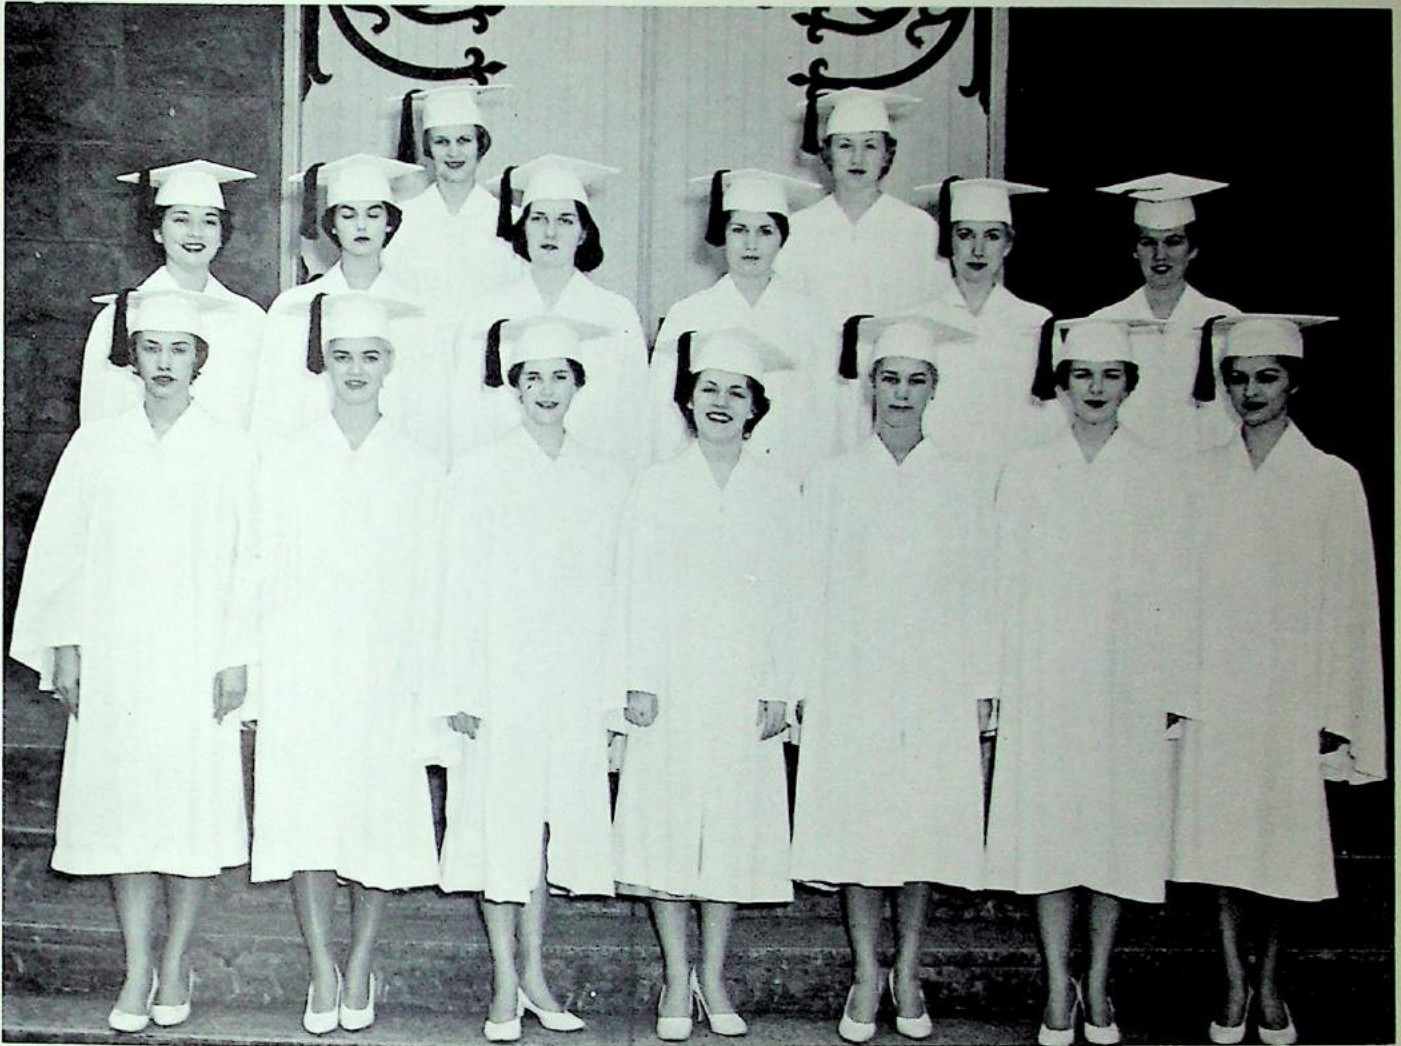

MAY COURT

Princess Martha Boyer, Princess Linda Nash, Princess Claudia Welch, Queen Cappie Bowen, Mistress of Ceremonies Judy Carson, Princess Sue Stevens, Princess Helen Beecher, Princess Marcia Lessing.

The rites of spring were ushered into the school year with the coronation of Queen Cappie I. The gay bouffant gowns with embroidered roses and bright colored sashes enhanced the radiant beauty of the queen and the members of her court. The honor of Mistress of Ceremonies this year went to Judy Carson, who dispatched her duties with grace and charm.

SENIORS IN WHITE

The beautiful entrance to Trinity Church reminds this year's senior class that they will soon be entering the door of adult life and responsibilities.

The class of 1959 was honored by having the song, "We Sing to Thee," written especially for their graduation. The music and lyrics were composed by Mr. Carl M. Beecher, father of a graduating senior.

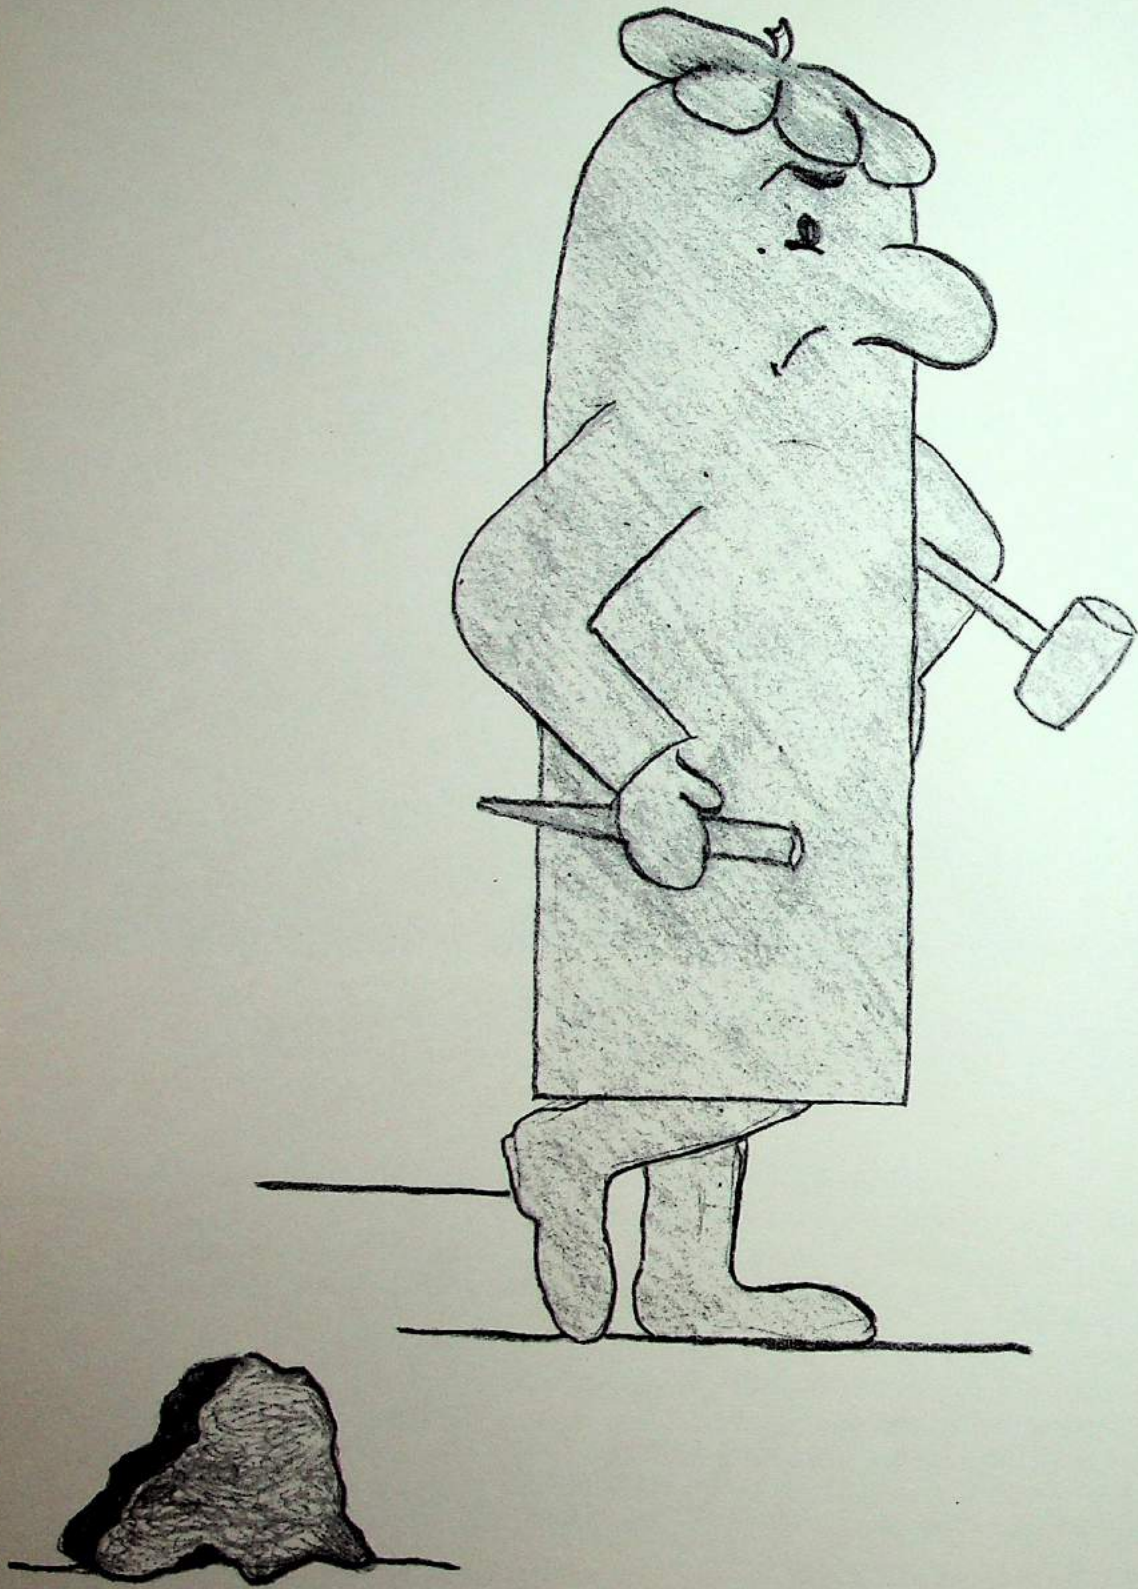

WE SING TO THEE

We sing to you as parting time draws nigh —
Your children we, who bid you now good-bye.
The one true God be gracious unto you —
St. Helen's Hall, our Alma Mater true.

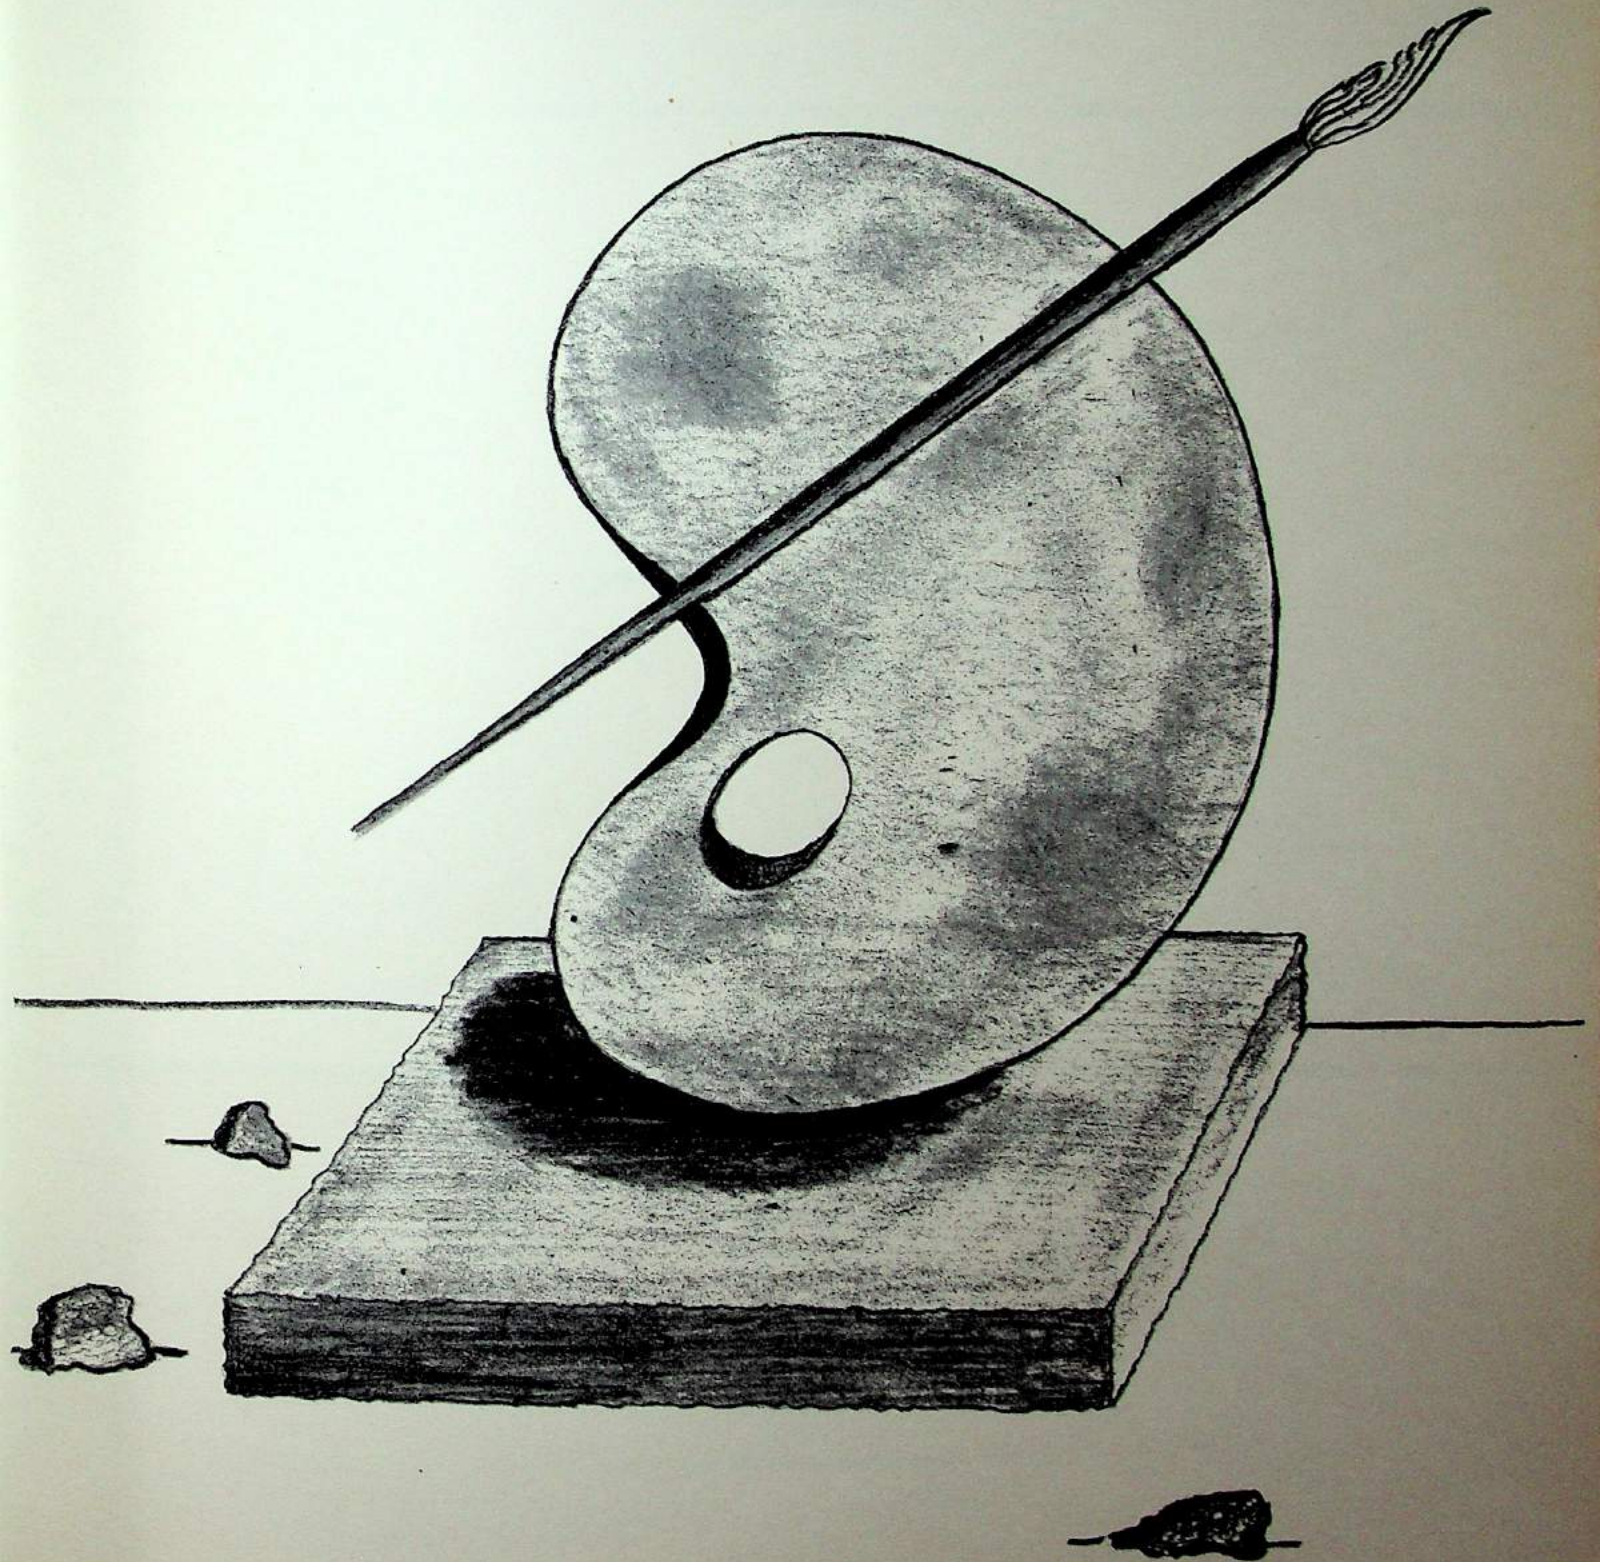

Long patiently you led us by the hand,
Along the path that leads to wisdom's land.
The one true God be gracious unto you —
St. Helen's Hall, our Alma Mater true.

Our thanks to you for study, work and fun;
For help in trouble, and for victories won.
The one true God be gracious unto you —
St. Helen's Hall, our Alma Mater true.

We come at last to our commencement day,
And ask your blessing as we go our way.
The one true God be gracious unto you —
St. Helen's Hall, our Alma Mater true.

Representative

Being a representative on the Olds and King's Hi-Board this year has been a wonderful experience. Meeting new friends, modeling, attending slumber parties, banquets, and working as a salesgirl filled the year with fun and excitement. Olds and King always welcomes you. Not only is it a top store but also a conveniently located shopping place.

Congratulations to the new hi-board member. I hope this experience will be as rewarding to you as it was to me.

"Vice it is possible to find in abundance with ease; for the way to it is smooth, and lies very near. But before the temple of virtue the immortal gods have placed labour, and the way to it is long and steep, and at the commencement rough; but when the traveller has arrived at the summit, it then becomes easy, however difficult it was at first."
