St. Helen's Hall

Portland, Oregon

Hands to stretch out to the world in service and draw it close in love ...

Hands to express the devotion of prayer ...

Hands to work with infinite patience to wipe away tears, to comfort sorrow ...

Hands to break the trail of life ...

Hands to follow the mind's direction in building a better world ...

Hands to create images of beauty to reflect the glory of God ...

Caroline Paige

Hands . . .

Reaching out in selfless devotion to all in which she believes. . .
Serving her Hall and her God with unfailing loyalty. . .
Preserving and enriching traditional methods with modern progress. . .
Epitomizing the spirit of St. Helena. . .
Molding minds toward clear, uncluttered thinking. . .
Giving of her knowledge and understanding to any who seek it. . .
Teaching with wisdom in her heart and a twinkle in her eye. . .
. . . Our own Miss Paige, to whom we dedicate this, the Delphic of 1963.

In appreciation of her many years of loving service to St. Helen's Hall, the Delphic Staff acknowledges a debt of lasting gratitude to Miss Irene Campbell.

The Bishop's Close

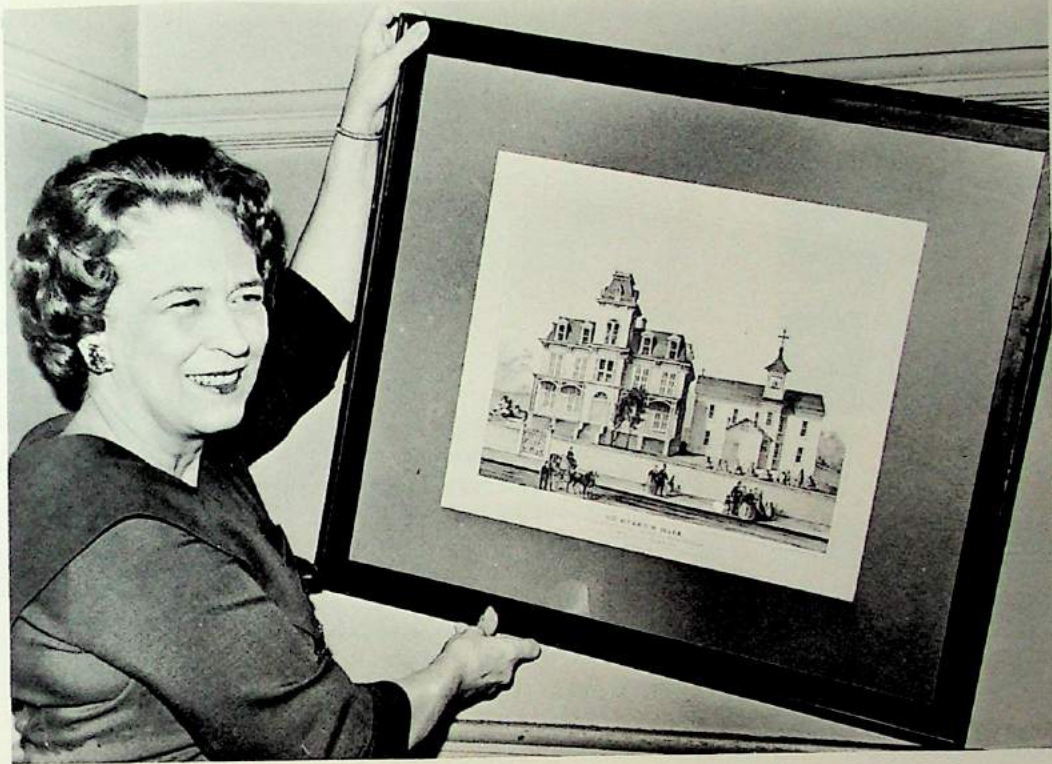

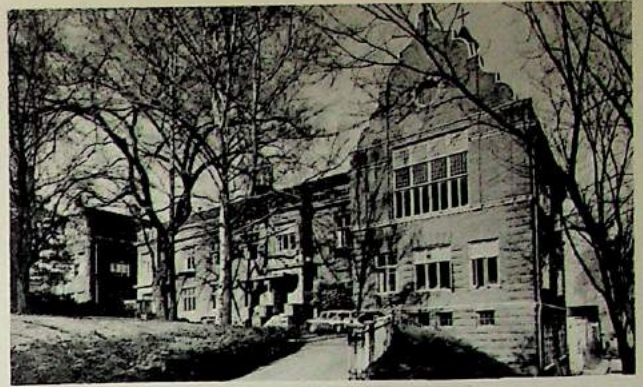

The Rt. Rev. James W. F. Carmen

Bishop Carmen can be seen at various school affairs throughout the year, but is especially remembered by every senior girl when he hands each their hard won diplomas at the altar of Trinity Cathedral. He represents the conscious interest the church takes in our education and development.

Gertrude Houk Fariss
Director

To the Class of 1963--

May each of you keep always within your heart the true meaning and the beautiful symbolism of hands clasped, one with another. From your teacher to you flow the stimulation of the mind, the excitement of discovery of the past, the stretching of thought toward the future, the challenge of proof, the thrill of creativity. From your friends to you pass the serenity of quiet confidence, the sharing of moments of discouragement and flashes of exhilaration, the sheer joy of mutual understanding, loyalty, and love.

From your God to you come freely and abundantly the faith to accept what is not always understood; the courage to stand for your highest concept of right, no matter what the compromises of others may be; your unshakable conviction that, despite the problems which may arise, "In the great hand of God I stand".

And may all of us, as we go into the future, continue always to keep our hands clasped, holding steadily and sharing constantly the knowledge, the friendship, and the spiritual vision which have come to us in some measure during our years together at St. Helen's Hall.

Administration

EVELYN STRAHAN
Director of Residence
Department

Mrs. Strahan, with the myriad graces of a perfect lady, teaches us the manners and ways of a polished woman. She also offers a consoling shoulder and a just and guiding hand to those with problems.

CAROLYN COLLETT
Administrative Assistant

Mrs. Collett not only guides us through school by her fine advice but helps us plan the immediate years after graduation through college counseling. She seems constantly to be the one who gathers all the bits and pieces together and keeps the Hall in smooth working order.

THE REVEREND R. H. GREENFIELD
Chaplain

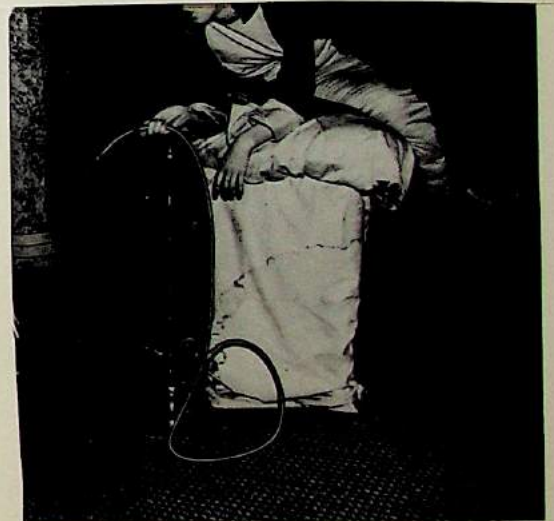

Father Greenfield has incorporated a profound understanding of Christian tradition and a subtle sense of humor into his role as Chaplain and counselor. He has well illustrated that Christianity is a necessary leavening in modern living.

CHERYL SHANKS

Art

New to St. Helen's Hall this year, Mrs. Shanks is inspiring our art-minded students to more creative and original efforts.

Though she remains modest and outwardly quiet, Madame's wisdom and insight might fill volumes. Because of her deep concern and interest in "my girls", her classes kindle a feeling not only for French or German, but also for the instructor.

Following Father Greenfield's entrance into the classroom, heated arguments begin. Having inserted into the discussion the most controversial point possible, he sits on the edge of the desk smiling complacently, while we battle our way to a solution. Outside of class he offers understanding, tempered with a sense of humor, and lends a ready ear to our individual crises.

Seemingly imbued with the wisdom of the prophets and the understanding of the ages, Mrs. Collett is an inspiration in both drama and religion. In spite of her busy life, there is always time to counsel the girls on individual problems. Of all the roles she plays, the role of "friend" is her finest.

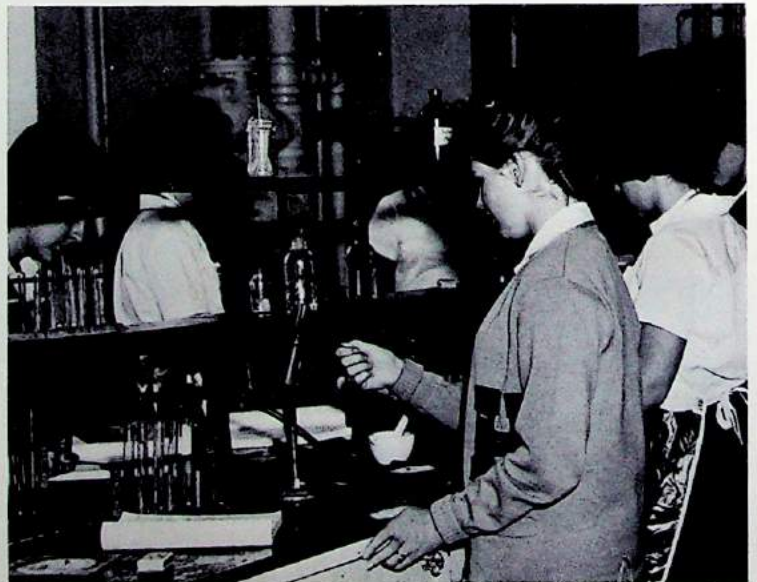

Deliberateness and precision her watch-words, Miss Paige is as clear and concise as her subject; and her blue-eyed brand of humor makes her a favorite with all of us.

MRS. ELIZABETH JOHNSON
Sciences
Foreign Affiliation Advisor
Junior Red Cross Advisor

Due to Mrs. Johnson's enthusiasm it certainly can't be said that a course in practical house-making is not offered at the Hall. Without her perpetual rush, quick smile and prodding patience, Science away from the Hall will never be the same.

Even without such an intense interest in her subject, Miss McKirdie could not fail to entrance her students. Her firm belief in the Socratic method, plus her enthusiasm for all learning force us to think in spite of ourselves.

ISABELLE MC KIRDIE

Freshman class Advisor

Relaxed, practical and down-to-earth, Mrs. Harrington seems to have been perfectly cast in her role as Senior Class advisor. Because of her good nature, her classes are a welcome diversion from more formal ones.

CAROLYN HARRINGTON

Senior Class Advisor

Mr. Morgan offers a variety of subjects from Fine Arts to English. His versatile abilities add a wide range of interest to each of his subjects, and every class is made richer by his wonderful anecdotes.

RUTH ROSE RICHARDSON

Miss Richardson, with her glib sense of humor, her inevitable coffee cup, and her fabulous descriptions of eighteenth century life gives her classes an air of distinction.

SENIORS IN WHITE

Behold Us, Gracious Savior.

Behold us, gracious Savior,
In girlhood's morning bright-
Look on us in Thy mercy,
And guide us with Thy light.
Life's journey lies before us,
Go with us all the way,
So shall we love Thee truly,
And serve Thee day by day.

Those gathered here together
Will soon be far apart,
But in Thy love and service
Unite us heart to heart
And keep us pure and loyal
Where e'er our lot may be,
True daughters of St. Helen's
And true our God to Thee.

So when Thou comest in glory
To gather in Thine own,
And we shall stand for judgment
Before Thy great White Throne;
Then place us at Thy right Hand,
And hearken to our prayer,
Of all St. Helen's daughters
Let none be missing there!

TRINITY CHURCH

We Sing To Thee

We sing to you as parting time draws nigh-
Your children we, who bid you now good-by.
The one true God be gracious unto you-
St. Helen's Hall, our Alma Mater true.

Long patiently you led us by the hand,
Along the path that leads to wisdom's land.
The one true God be gracious unto you-
St. Helen's Hall, our Alma Mater true.

We come at last to our commencement day,
And ask your blessing as we go our way.
The one true God be gracious unto you-
St. Helen's Hall, our Alma Mater true.

Dormitories

Through dormitory living each boarder learns to live harmoniously with others and in doing so becomes aware of her own individuality.

Nan Butler
President

The future of our country and our world lies heavily on us as the leaders of tomorrow. Our high school years offer many opportunities to develop leadership through scholarship, service, and particularly student government. As Student Body President I have enjoyed an interesting and enriching experience offering me the chance to develop, and, at the same time, to help others develop in their understanding and appreciation of representative government.

I am indebted to the valuable assistance of the faculty and administration and to the cooperation of my fellow students in advancing this idea. I will remember this year as the zenith of my high school career.

The Delphic staff has worked unceasingly this year to produce a yearbook that will mean something to every girl. Unifying the Delphic with the theme of "Hands", we have retained good points from former yearbooks and have added innovations of our own. I wish to thank my loyal and dedicated editors and their staffs for helping me to produce the 1963 St. Helen's Hall Delphic.

Helenas

Helenas Chapter of the National Honor Society

This is the first year Helenas, our school honor organization, has been a member of the National Honor Society.

In addition to serving in the chapel, we are striving to keep the traditions of the Hall alive and to set examples that every Hall girl should be proud to follow.

Altar Guild

The arrangement of flowers, brass polishing, the care of the vestments, and overall maintenance of the chapel are the responsibilities of the Altar Guild. Through such care, the girls gain a deeper appreciation of the chapel.

Left to right: Mary Hafner, President Libby McKirdie, Treasurer, Joan Lasselle, Secretary

Joanna Collumbell
Exchange student from Southern Rhodesia

Foreign Affiliation had the privilege of helping to bring JoAnna Collumbell, our exchange student from Southern Rhodesia, to St. Helen's Hall. Our projects have included a scrapbook of America and an active correspondence with our sister school, Arundel, in Rhodesia. We look forward to sending one of our girls to Arundel in the near future.

The Boarder's Council helps the boarders to see the importance of traditions and to uphold Hall standards. We plan two functions each year, the Halloween Dinner and the Boarder's Birthday Dinner; and we try to guide each individual into finding her particular place at the Hall.

Glee Club

The life and spirit of many Hall functions are directly attributable to the vitality and generosity of the Glee Club.

Junior Red Cross

The dedicated members of the Junior Red Cross devote much of their time to helping needy families throughout Portland. This year, they have made Christmas stockings, braille book covers, stuffed animals, baby clothes, slippers and quilts in addition to participating in numerous drives.

Marcia DuBois, President
Judy Hill, Vice-President

Athletic Commission

The Athletic Commission is composed of those girls who take an active interest in all types of sports. For the last two years, the volleyball team has taken a trophy in city-wide competition and hopes the winning streak will continue.

Senior Dinner

The traditional Senior Dinner introduces the seniors to their part as respected leaders of the school. In looking at the previous year in retrospect, and contemplating their role as seniors, they discover new ways to make "their" year, the very finest.

Old-Girl New Girl Picnic

At the picnic old friends are reunited after a summer apart to admire newly acquired tans and compare notes on recent happenings. The "new girls" are taken under the protective wing of their "big sisters" and introduced to the way of life at St. Helen's Hall.

Gay as its name, "Carousel", the Junior Red Letter Dance had for its Queen Sandi Dobson, Belle of St. Helen's.

Volleyball

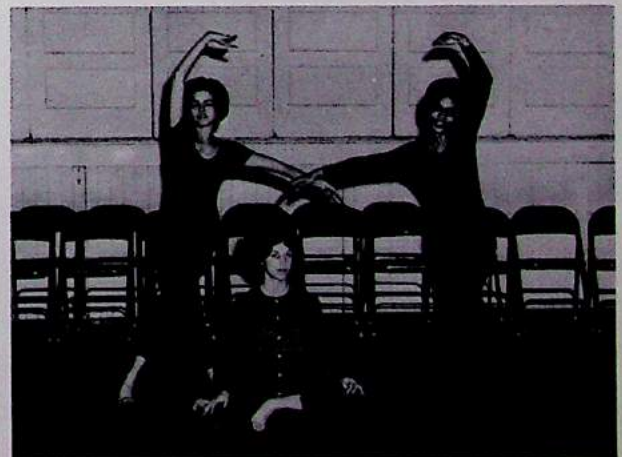

Trophies won in volleyball city-wide competition

For those of us with athletic interests, several activities are open for participation: volleyball city wide competition-skiing at Multopor in the winter-and riding at the Portland Hunt Club in the Spring.

Christmas Formal

"Red Velvet," this year's Christmas Formal, was characterized by chandeliers, candlesticks, and red velvet!

The Christmas Play, traditionally retelling the story of Christ's birth, epitomizes the very spirit at the Hall.

Christmas Dinner

The Christmas dinner, ranging in mood from the fun-filled antics of Santa Daret to the beautiful solemnity of the candlelight vesper service, will remain a vivid part of "Hall Memories."

Father-Daughter Dinner

The surprise entertainment by the King's Men added an extra pleasure to the annual Father-Daughter Dinner.

Left to right; Mistress of Ceremonies, Judy Agather, Princesses Robin Hail, Joanne Dobson, Jody Sherwood, Alice Martin, Judith Boone, Mary Hafner, Queen Betty Buckles

Excitement and curiosity produced a mood of great expectancy as the announcement of queen of the May Fete drew near. After the coronation, the queen, her court, and all the guests were entertained by the production of "Alice in Wonderland". This mood of fantasy carried over into the evening ball. Our aim was to capture the beauty and vitality of spring, on this, the gayest of May Days.

Epilogue-----

Hands clasped in friendship -----and farewell....

A sudden realization that our Hall years are over....

And yet---a poignant awareness that the harvest of these years

Will be forever part of us.....

Hands clasped in unspoken eloquence.....

Loyalties and memories understood.....

Thanksgiving for having received more than we could possibly have given.....

Hands clasped at Commencement----an ending and a beginning.....

A pledging of faith to be kept.....

That our hands, too, may serve....
