

DELPHIC 1967

Like a lotus blooming mysteriously in some water-washed grotto, St. Helen's Hall holds much in store for those who discover her . . . A chapel of quiet, meditative beauty, an orchard chuck-full of tangy apples, fields of towering poplars, and a taste of infinite knowledge . . . all lie in the heart of the flower. She whirls in dizzy eddies of activity, yet in rare moments of time-caught calm she gathers her strength. Her beauty and fragrance inspire in us a reverence and joyous sense of awe. May we, as we bend to touch her, sense the wonder and become one with her constantly unfolding petals.

Ours is a generation of disharmony and restless action. Our impetuosity beats against the walls of tradition like foamy breakers against a cliff. Our minds and spirits, just awakening from the sleep of childhood, are groping, questioning, wondering. Yet there is one here who, with keen understanding, reaches through the wall separating youth and adulthood. Her hand is warm and gentle. She is a woman—in the highest and truest sense of the word—regal, staunch in her own principles, and yet inspiring faith, love and courage. Hers is the genius of human understanding—the rare ability to do the unexpected act of compassion. It is with deep love, esteem and honor that we, the Class of '67 dedicate our Delphic to you, Carolyn Collett.

*"The soul
unfolds itself,
like a lotus of countless petals."
—Kahlil Gibran*

Remember the last time the sun was shining? It is hard to forget the warm glow it sent everywhere. It is hard to forget Terry Cass, too, with the warm friendly smile she extended to everyone. Terry was one with the white, unfolding petals—and, in memory, will always be . . . an integral part of all we cherish in St. Helen's Hall.

Gertrude Houk Fariss, Director

Dear Graduates of 1967 —

The process of "growing up" is a fascinating and mysterious experience, is it not? At fourteen you look eagerly forward to it and can hardly wait for it to happen! At sixteen you're in the midst of it and have absolute certainty that it has happened and that you are completely "grown up". At eighteen you begin to have a few doubts. From this time on, if your life is a worthwhile one, you seek for further knowledge and understanding of much that in your heart you intuitively know to be true.

Kahlil Gibran has written:

*"Your hearts know in silence the secrets of the days and the nights.
But your ears thirst for the sound of your heart's knowledge.
You would know in words that which you have always known in thought.
You would touch with your fingers the naked body of your dreams."*

Does he not say that "growing up" is partly the experience of feeling what we often refer to as "the divine discontent?" As a child you accept, you feel, you know in your own heart that certain truths are. As you grow up, you question, you examine, you analyze, you search for new horizons of understanding and a broader vision of all that is. Your mind is stirred by an awakening intellectual curiosity; your heart seeks for tangible evidence of the truths that it "knows in silence."

May you never live with petty discontent that brings only irritating dissatisfaction and miserable unhappiness. May you live always with divine discontent that stretches every fibre of your mind and brings you closer to a genuine understanding of facts and the reasons for them; of people, their problems, and their almost limitless potential; of life and the full living of it; of love for human beings and for God.

As you leave St. Helen's Hall, my dear Seniors, I send you on with these beautiful words from John Gould Fletcher's White Symphony, on my lips, and with this prayer for each of you in my heart.

*"Towards the impossible,
Towards the inaccessible,
Towards the eternal,
These blossoms go."*

Always affectionately,
Gertrude Houk Fariss

The Rt. Rev. James W. F. Carman, D.D.

No matter when you read this, when it is first published, or when you are—as I pray you will be someday—a grandmother, one philosophy will, I believe, be always true. The girl you are at any present moment is the fashioning of all your yesterdays, their hopes, joys, fears, failures and prayers. One present moment is also the anticipation of the future, immediate or distant. We always live at one time only, between times, in the mysterious now. But the past and the future always determine the quality of the now. When a person says he is “bored stiff,” he means that there is nothing very much in the past or the future that intrigues him. May God always bless your “nows.”

CAROLYN COLLETT
(right)

Administrative Assistant, Dean of Students, Drama

Mrs. Collett was born in North Carolina and attended St. Helen's Hall Junior College. She went on to the University of Washington, won a Phi Beta Kappa key; received an M.A. degree from Columbia University; studied acting under Madame Maria Ouspenskya.

CAROLYN HARRINGTON
(below)

Admissions Director, Music Appreciation

Mrs. Harrington received a B.A. degree with English as a major, and then at Westminster College in New Jersey earned a Bachelor of Music Degree. She adds dedication, vitality, and sense of humor to her work at St. Helen's Hall.

EVELYN STRAHAN

Resident Director

Mrs. Strahan was born in Sausalito, California and received a B.A. degree at Oregon State University. As resident director, she has shown her deep conviction to the ideals of the Hall. Quietly, but determinedly, she works to instill in us her own sense of gentility.

The REV. EDWIN BISHOP

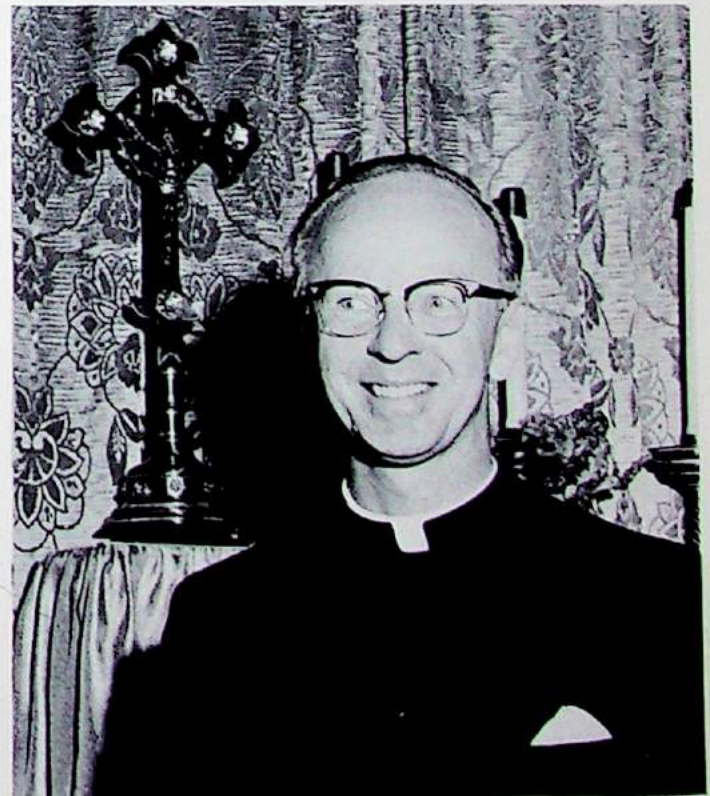

Chaplain, Religious Education

Father Bishop was born in Seattle. He attended the University of Washington and the General Theological Seminary in New York. He served in the navy and has had parish ministries in Nevada and Oregon. The father of three children, he has a keen understanding of young people.

The REV. R. H. GREENFIELD

Middle and Lower School Chaplain

Father Greenfield was born and raised in Portland. After earning a B.A. degree at Reed, he attended Oxford University, where he received a B.Litt. degree and a Ph.D. Before returning to the States, he toured Europe on a bicycle. He has served St. Helen's Hall with unceasing zest, and at present is vicar of St. Stephen's Chapel.

ELLEN BERNSTEIN

Mathematics

Mrs. Bernstein was born in Brooklyn, New York, and attended the University of Arts and Science in Indiana. Impish and spirited, she radiates enthusiasm and her love for math.

VAUNDA CARTER

Modern Dance

Mrs. Carter was a soloist in the Portland Ballet Troupe at the remarkable age of 15. She was graduated from Mills and has traveled all over the world. Forceful, yet elegant, she stimulates awareness in her students.

HELGA DARET

Physical Education

Mrs. Daret, born in Portland, received a degree in Health and P.E. at Lewis and Clark. She worked for a time at Emmanuel Hospital before becoming an integral part of the Hall. A friend to all, she is fun-loving and spontaneous.

CYNTHIA DORAN

History, English

Mrs. Doran was graduated from Wellesley College and received an M.A. degree from Brown University. She is as enthusiastic as the Juniors she advises, and enjoys the theater and symphony.

SUSAN GRIES

Latin

Mrs. Gries studied at Reed College and throughout Europe. She loves dancing, especially ballet and folk dances. She is both firm of discipline and keen of wit.

DOROTHY HARVEY

Spanish

Mrs. Harvey, a native of Oregon, attended Oregon State University. She studied recently at the University of Mexico. Her warm vitality was contagious; people, ideas—anything out of the ordinary—fascinated her. A whiz at tennis.

IN MEMORIAM

"The teacher who walks in the shadow of the temple, among his followers, gives not of his wisdom but rather of his faith and his lovingness."

—Kahlil Gibran

ISABELLE McKIRDIE

Miss McKirdie was born in Scotland. She attended Washington University in St. Louis, and the University of Edinburgh. After teaching in public schools in the Chicago area, she came to St. Helen's Hall. Here she continually inspires her students with her seeming omniscience and demand for the best.

ELIZABETH JOHNSON

Mrs. Johnson was born in Michigan. She attended the University of Washington, received an M.S. degree from Mills College, and then came to teach at St. Helen's Hall. Mrs. Johnson's enthusiasm for science spills over in her classrooms, and captures the minds of her students.

CAROLINE PAIGE

Mathematics

Born in North Dakota, Miss Paige moved west in her teens and attended St. Helen's Hall. She then earned a B.S. in mathematics at the University of Washington. In her many years of service to the Hall, she has demanded not only perseverance but Christian dedication from her students.

CARL REYNOLDS

Art Appreciation

A native of Portland, Mr. Reynolds received his B.A. and M.A. degrees at Stanford. Through endless slides and warm patience he instills in us a generous portion of his own great love for art.

RUTH ROSE RICHARDSON

English and Old Testament

Miss Richardson came as a student to St. Helen's Hall in her junior year and graduated president of her class. She received degrees at the University of Oregon and the University of North Carolina, and did graduate work at Claremont College and Stanford. We cannot think of Miss Richardson without an inward smile and feeling of respect. A rose with any other spirit would inspire much less.

ELSA SILVERS

Art

Mrs. Silvers was born in Washington and studied art at Reed College. Teaching gives her freedom for self-expression and satisfaction in guiding young artists. Fame and fortune still lie in the future, but happiness disguised as a paint brush colors the present.

BETTY WILCOX

Guidance and History

Born in Oceanside, California, Mrs. Wilcox graduated from Reed College with a B.A. in psychology. She is a great lover of the outdoors. Though quiet, she is a favorite with her freshmen, and makes history come to life for them. Mrs. Wilcox is skilled in guidance, and is in charge of the testing programs. She is understanding of personal problems.

IRENE WOLFSON
(below)

French

Madame Wolfson was born in Poland. She received B.A. and M.A. degrees from the King Frederick Wilhelm University in Poland. Since coming to the United States, she has taught in high schools and colleges from Georgia to Oregon. "Madame" immeasurably broadens our classroom experience by giving the European viewpoint and by virtue of her broad knowledge and experience.

HELEN STOLL
(left)

Voice and Diction

Mrs. Stoll is a long-standing Portland resident. She attended Roosevelt High School, St. Helen's Hall Junior College, the University of Washington, and did post-graduate work at Reed College. She, in her gracious speech and manner, sets a high example for her Voice and Diction students at the Hall.

Thus it was

I am being driven forward
Into an unknown land.
The pass grows steeper,
The air colder and sharper.
A wind from my unknown goal
Stirs the strings
Of expectation.

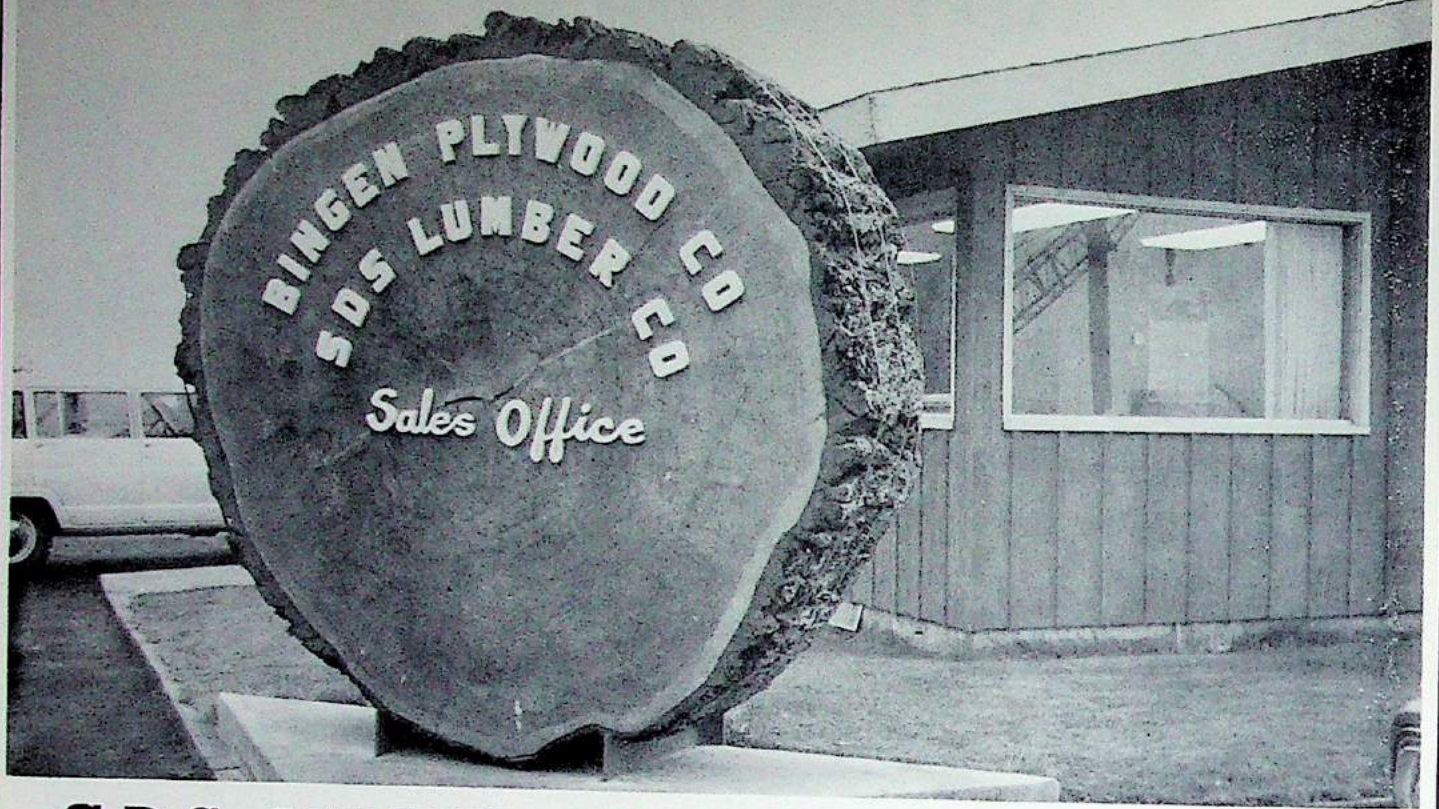

Still the question:
Shall I ever get there?
There where life resounds,
A clear pure note
In the silence.

CONTACT LENSES

There is no greater satisfaction to anyone who wears glasses than the pleasure provided by properly fitted contact lenses. A whole new world of unhampered vision and pride in appearance opens to the wearer. May we offer you the benefit of our years of experience in fitting and prescribing contact lenses for men and women of all ages?

Listen . . . do you want to know a secret? Do you promise not to tell? Oh-Oh

(Closer)

Let me whisper in your ear,
say the words you want to hear:

"How now, brown cow" said
the turtle.

"Just fine, feline," said the goat.

"But I must admit with blade, with bloody blameful blade, he bravely broached his boiling bloody blameful blade."

COMPLIMENTS OF

A FRIEND

Ah! The trials of being Editors — and Associates! We really have been balancing precariously between cold splashes of despair and utter ecstasies of triumph. And we never would have survived or succeeded (for we really think we have) without the ardent help of so many wonderful souls — Phoebe for Lay-out, Joanie and Marilyn for Advertising, Jane for Business Manager, Sharon for Art, Rebecca for Chauffeur, Leslie for Photography, and Mr. Breck for his remarkable patience and photography. Our mightiest thanks to you all, and to the Seniors — your Delphic '67.
