Bye -
 I really don't want this year to end.
 I'm really going cry when the Fitzgeralds leave. That is one of the main reasons why I decided to come back next year I'll write them. I'll write you. I really don't see how you survived through 2 years of Middle School. We'll have many good times in high school. What in the world am I doing here. Oh, well. Here I am. I can do no other. I hope Miles will be out so cool next year Don't think about the beginning of this one. Be a good kid. Have fun this summer.
 Bye - bye - love - Karen

Joan,
 Very nice to know
 you. Hope you come back
 next year and have a happy Summer.
 Love
 Susan V.

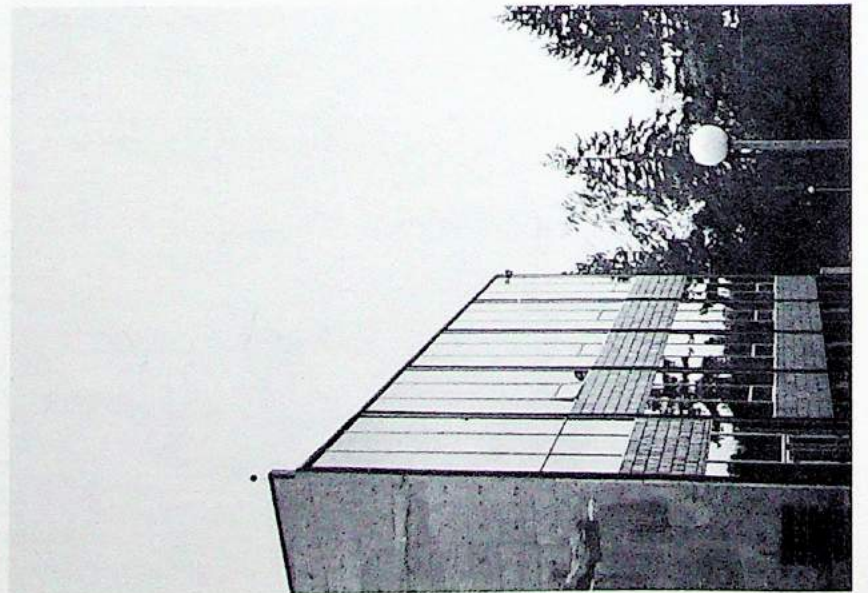

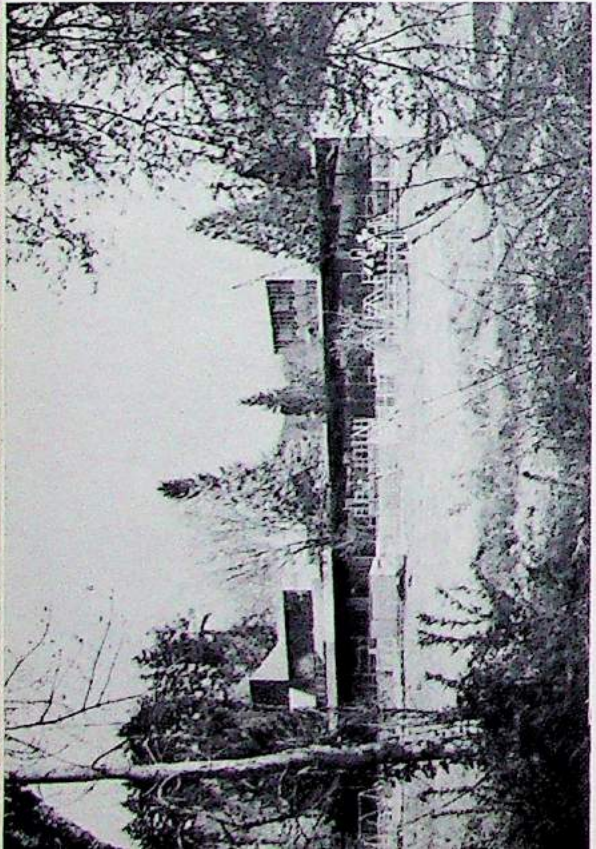

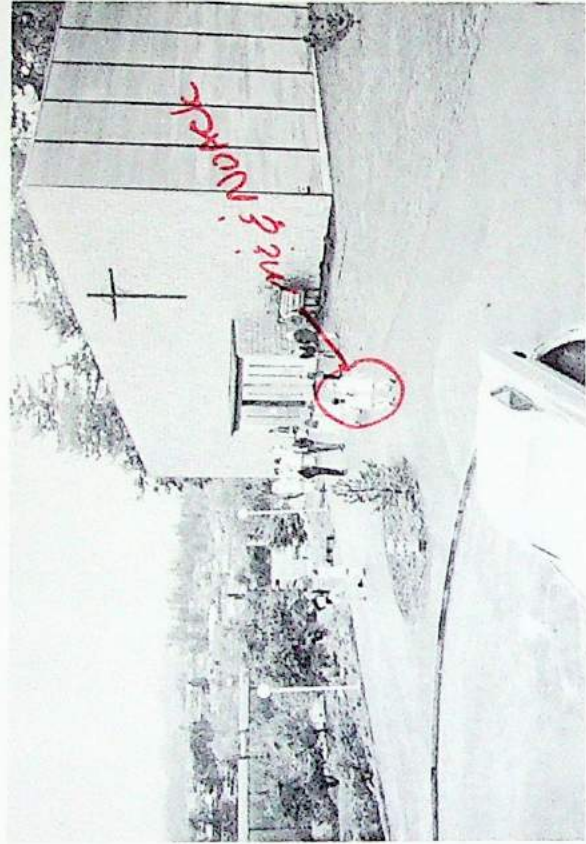

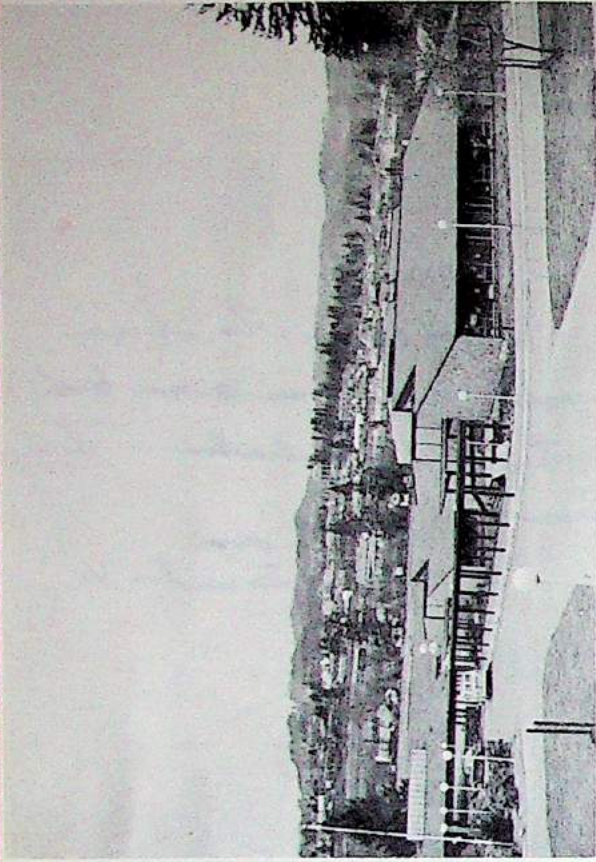

Joan -
 Have a safe summer
 and come back next year
 ready to work you self to death. Next year
 you will be a year
 high school girl!
 Funse!

Oregon Episcopal Schools
Legend - Delphic
1969 - 1970

The Senior classes of St. Helen's Hall and Bishop Dagwell Hall would like to dedicate our yearbook to the bright future of the finally coeducational Oregon Episcopal Schools.

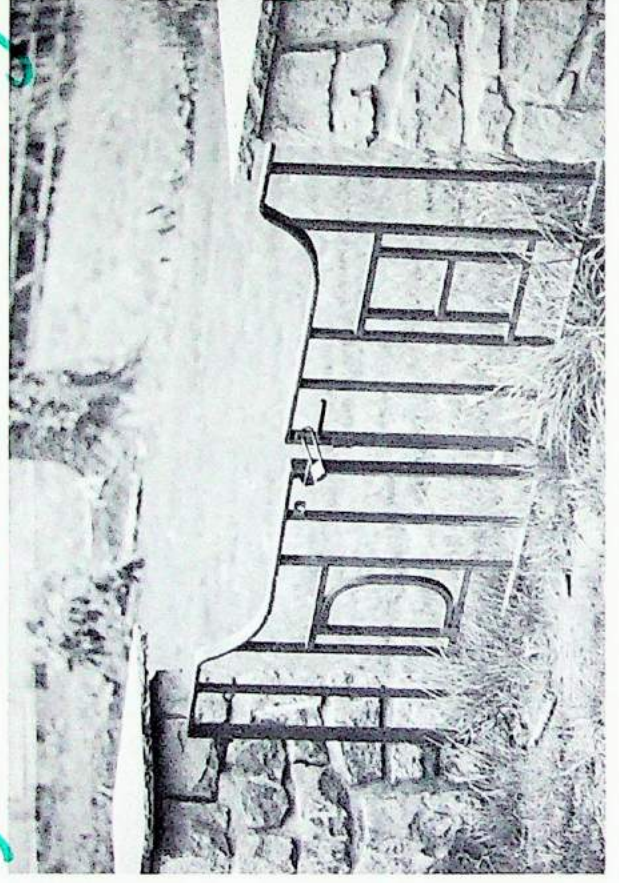

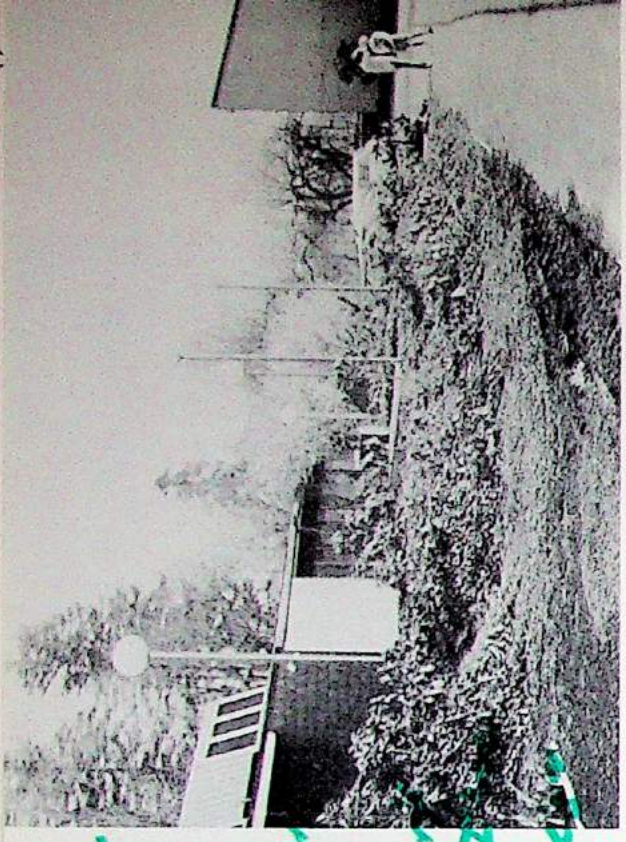

Dear Joan (B)
Well

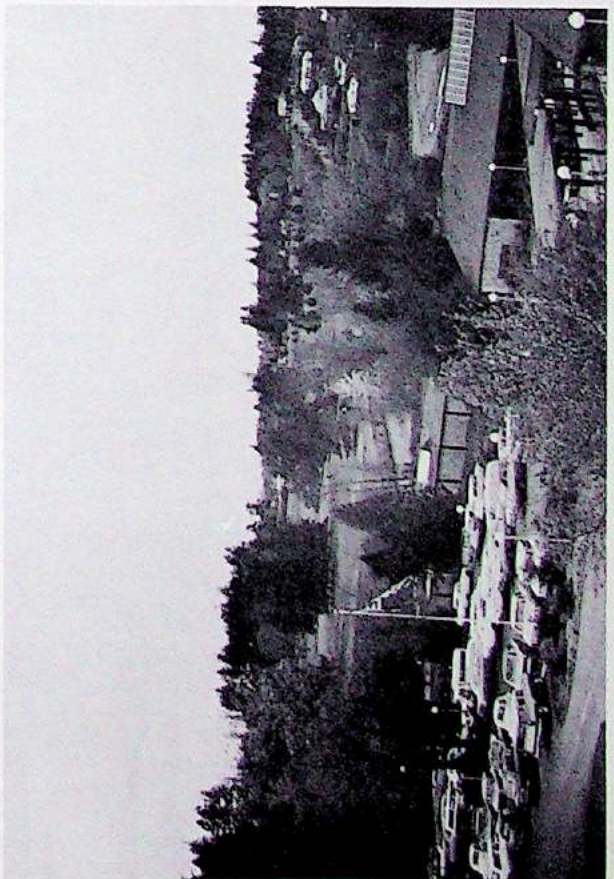

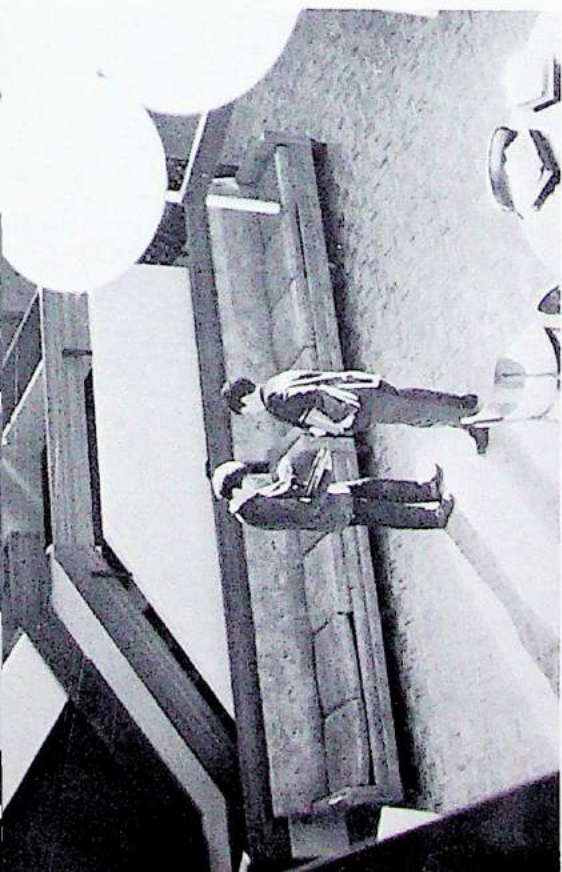

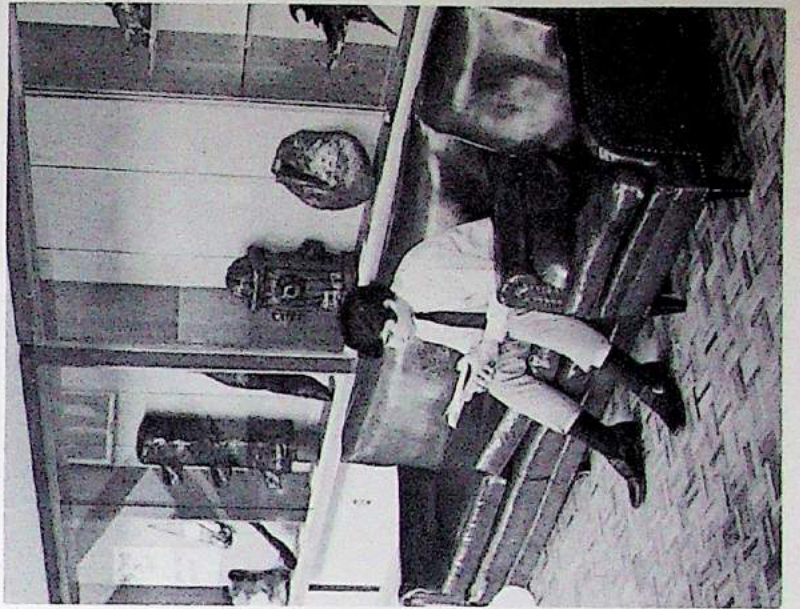

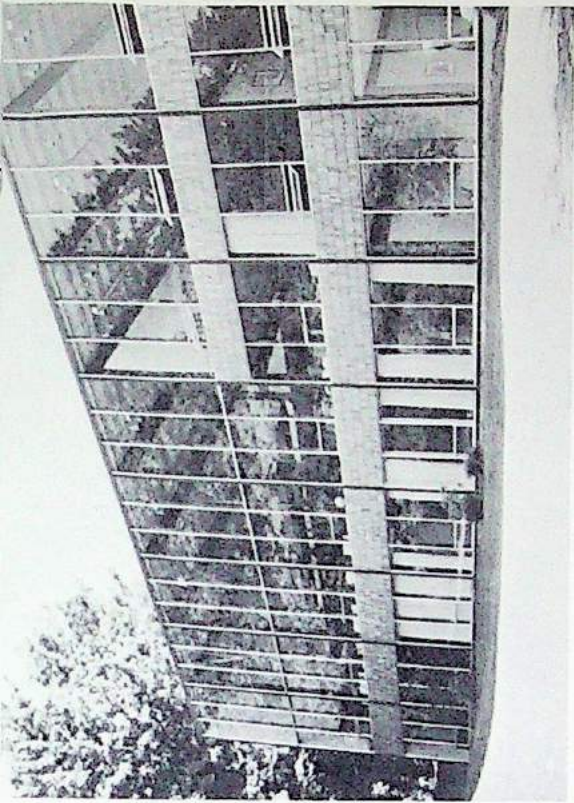

this year wasn't too good -
I mean being
"close" - I mean
bestfriends and all
Well I guess last year made up for it Just because I

going to Cathie this
one. year - doesn't mean I won't get to see you. For sure
I coming back my sophomore year -
Boy I really don't want to go.....
Even if you don't think so and if may look like it isn't your "best"

"best, best, best,
best..... a infinite time

The 1969 BDH cross-country squad showed perhaps the most improvement of any BDH team. They collected the divisional championship by going undefeated. The squad downed Catlin Gabel, Portland Christian, Concordia, and Jewell for the perfect slate.

Under coach Clifton Young, the team bowed out at the regional meet. They placed second at district and fourth at regionals.

The cross-country team held powerful talent in Ed Haessler, Fred Ellis, Jarrett Dorsey, Harold Larsen, Peter Purdy, John Marcy, Stephen Cuffel and Chris Birkmeyer.

4th Place — P.N.A.I.S. Tournament

The 1969 soccer season was one filled with both the good and the bad. In the end, the Falcons carted off second place in the Oregon High School League.

The Falcons were perennially second behind the Catlin Gabel Eagles. The Eagles took two pre-season tournaments from the Falcons and the state championship game itself.

The team swept through Mt. Angel 3-0 and 2-1; LaSalle 2-1; and Western Mennonite 2-0 on their way to a 4-1-1 league record and the division championship. The lone tie came at LaSalle 1-1, with a 3-1 loss at home to Western Mennonite. The team finished the season 6-6-1.

A playoff berth paid off as the Falcons dumped Portland Christian 3-0 and moved into the title game. The Falcons lost 1-0 in overtime at Catlin Gabel before nearly 100 Hall students.

Assurance of the South Division championship came with a brilliant 2-0 win over Western Mennonite at the valley school on October 10. Marshall Spencer's skyrocketing blast slipped into the cords and that winning goal tied up the championship of the South. Kris Hatcher's late goal helped ice the victory.

Hatcher scored twice and right wing Osama Kabbani tallied once as the Falcons slapped Mt. Angel 3-0 on September 26.

An intense rivalry built up between BDH and A-1 school LaSalle in a vicious home-and-home series. Mike Russell and Hatcher led the way to a 2-1 home victory September 30, but a late LaSalle goal on October 3 gained them a 1-1 tie in Milwaukie. Bill Lake, Warren Cox, and Mike Russell were temporarily sidelined with injuries.

Russell took over in goal for Lake October 7 at Mt. Angel and left the goal late in the game to rifle on goal the winning assist. Kris Hatcher picked up Russell's rebound and the Falcons won 2-1.

The Falcons breezed through the playoffs with a 3-0 win over Portland Christian on October 24. Kris Hatcher drove home a 1-0 lead, but the turning point came when Bill Lake turned aside a PCHS penalty shot. Bryant Wooten and Martin Landeen helped swamp the Royals and the Falcons were in the state title game.

However, Catlin's 1-0 overtime win kept an unbelievable hex alive.

The team included Kris Hatcher, Osama Kabbani, Bryant Wooten, Greg Amerson, and Harold Larsen at forward positions; Marshall Spencer, Martin Landeen, George Rector, Alan Dappen, and Don Pennington at midfield; Charles Seaborn, Mike Russell, and Brad Allen on defense; and Bill Lake in goal. The Falcons were aptly guided by coach John Hicks.

1st Place — Corbett Tournament

The 1969-70 wrestling team, under coach John Hicks, sent Art Bruce and Steve Premo to state and brought them back both second place winners. The team finished 4-6 with a 1st place finish at the Corbett Tournament.

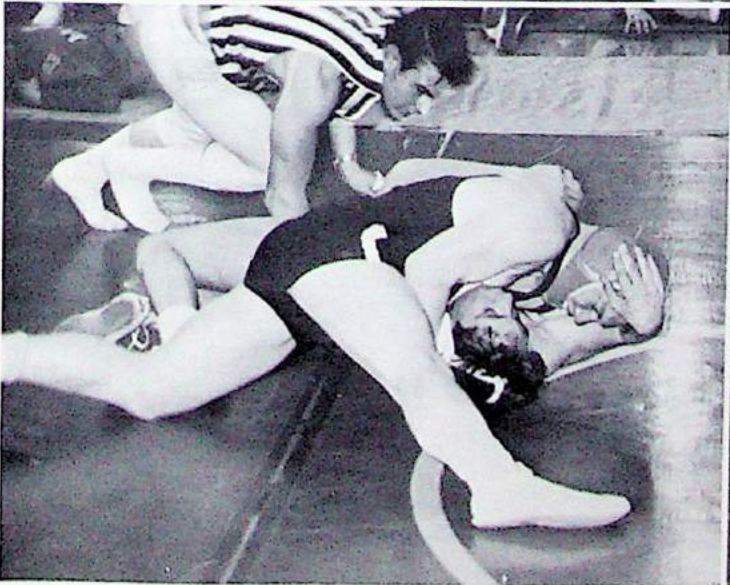

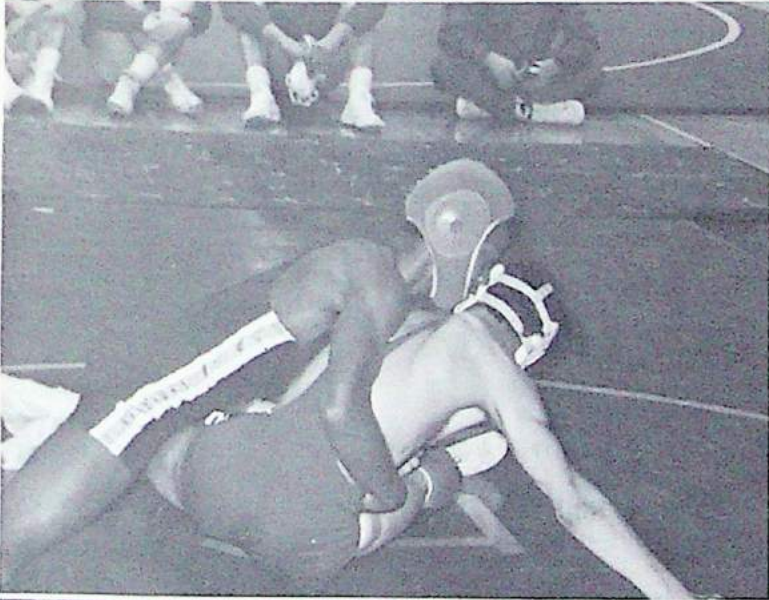

Premo lost to one-time state champion Bill Cox of Colton while Bruce dropped his title match to David Tuckness of Harrisburg.

Martin Landeen went into the sub-district meet with a 10-0-2 record, but dropped his first match there. However, it had been a successful if not outstanding season for Landeen. Norman Frink finished 3-3, with all three of his wins coming on pins. The rest of the team included Steve Cox, David Foland, Tim Curren, Harold Larsen, Greg Church, Jarrett Dorsey, Andy Dappen, Joe Augsburger, and Robert McCaslin.

The Falcons dropped a pair to Knappa 35-28 and 33-23, but split with Sherwood, 26-23 BDH and 32-21 Sherwood. They also split with Banks. The Falcons took the first 17-13 but dropped the finale 26-13. Dayton took the Falcons 40-25, as did Culver 15-11. The Falcons downed Corbett 28-20 and MacLaren 32-15.

All in all, the wrestling team enjoyed a fine season with even better to come, as the team largely consist of probable returnees.

3rd Place — P.N.A.I.S. Tournament

The 1969-70 Falcon basketball team closed the season by scoring six straight victories to make the season their best ever under the leadership of coach Gary Craigmiles.

Final victories over Columbia Christian, Mt. Angel, Portland Christian, MacLaren, Concordia, and Tillamook Catholic rounded out a 14-8 season for the Falcons, their best mark in five years of existence.

The Falcons swept two from Gaston, 51-34 and 49-30. Neither game was much of a contest as the Greyhounds were the poorest team in the league. They could not match the offensively ferocious Falcons.

The Falcons also completed a sweep of MacLaren. The first game was 57-52 in overtime, but a Falcon rout came in the second game by more than 20 points.

The pair with Tillamook Catholic came out a split. The Vikings took a 54-53 victory on the coast, dealing the team the first of their eight losses. But the Falcons got the last of their 14 victories at home, 61-60. Bill Lake's free throw with 10 seconds to play broke a 60-60 deadlock.

The Falcons took third at the PNAIS tournament in Seattle. Charles Wright dumped the Falcons 59-57 in an overtime battle as Bill Lake hit for 32 points. The next day saw a 61-38 victory over Catlin Gabel to take third.

The Falcons took the Eagles 55-48 and 61-43 in other contests.

Jewell took a pair from BDH, 60-45 and 57-53. The latter saw a Falcon rally buckle in the closing seconds.

In conference play, the Falcons turned in their best effort ever with a 4-4 record. Corbett took both ends of a home-and-home, 51-45 and 93-56, but none others could so fully master the Falcons. Half of the final six wins were conference wins.

Concordia won a double figure decision in a game that was close until the final quarter. But BDH took a most impressive 44-42 victory just when the Bluejays were about to nab first place.

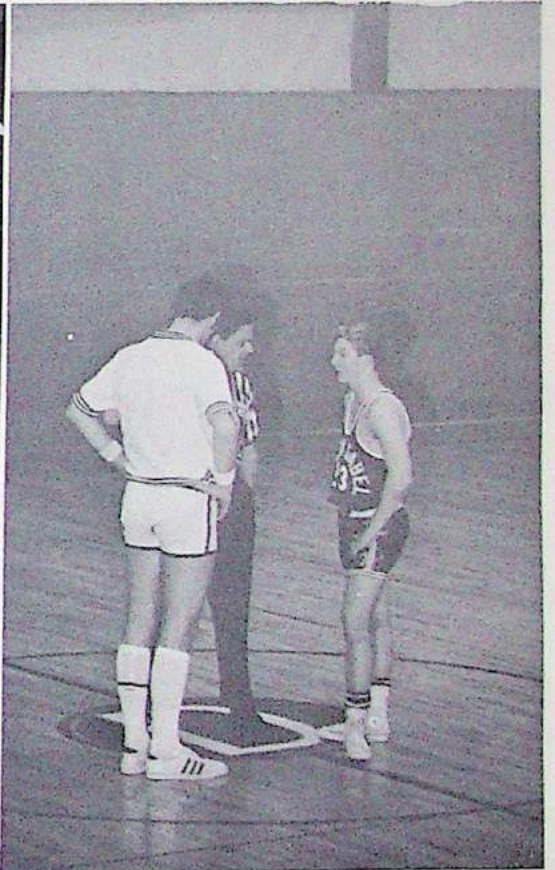

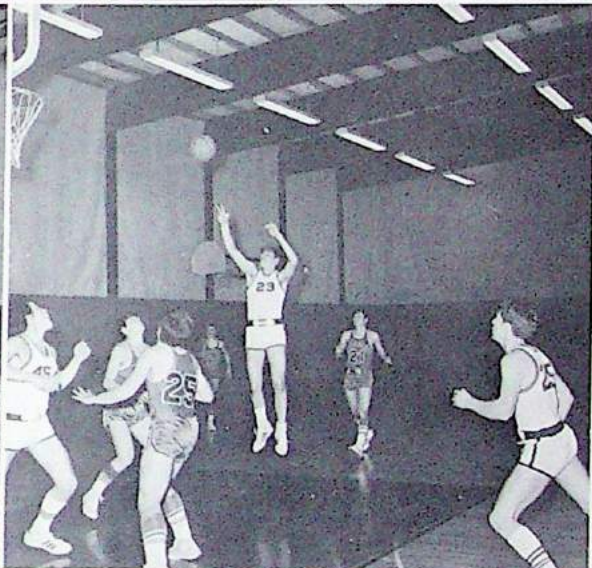

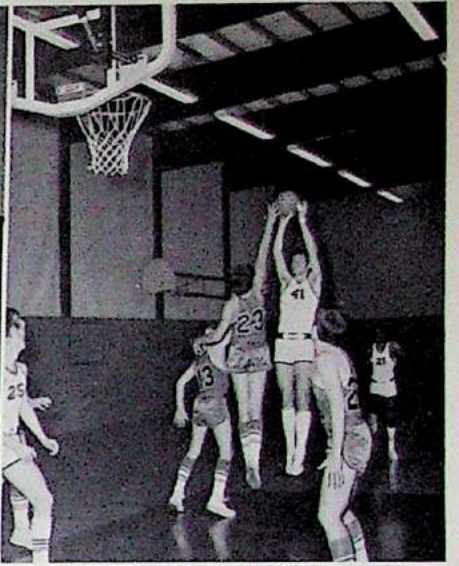

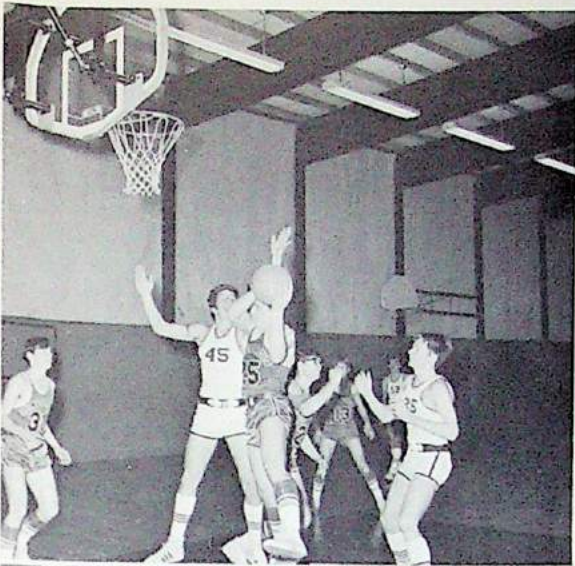

The Falcons had never beaten Portland or Columbia Christian before the 1969-70 season, but they finally took a pair from the Knights and one from the Royals.

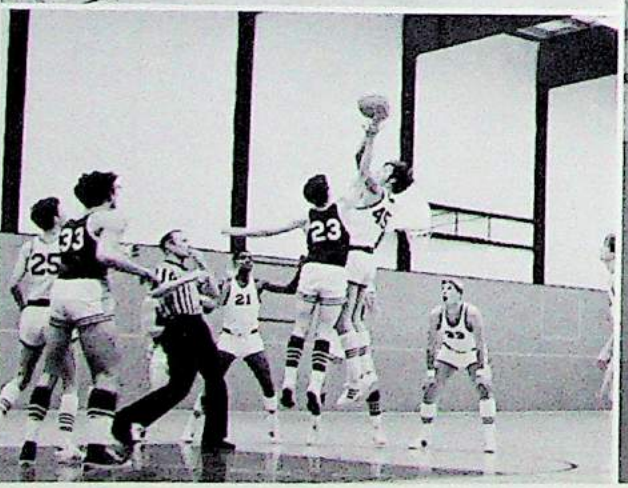

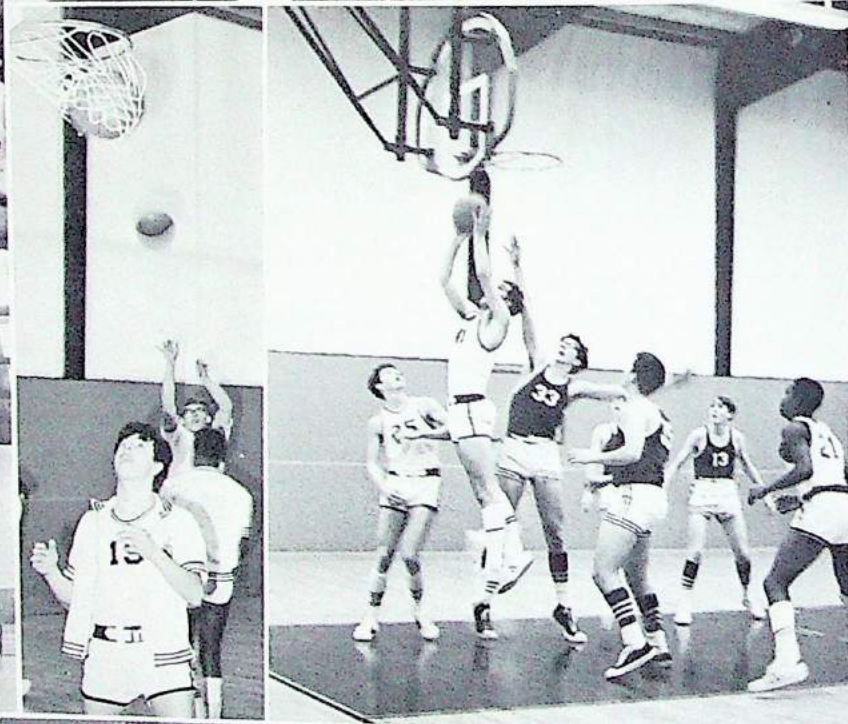

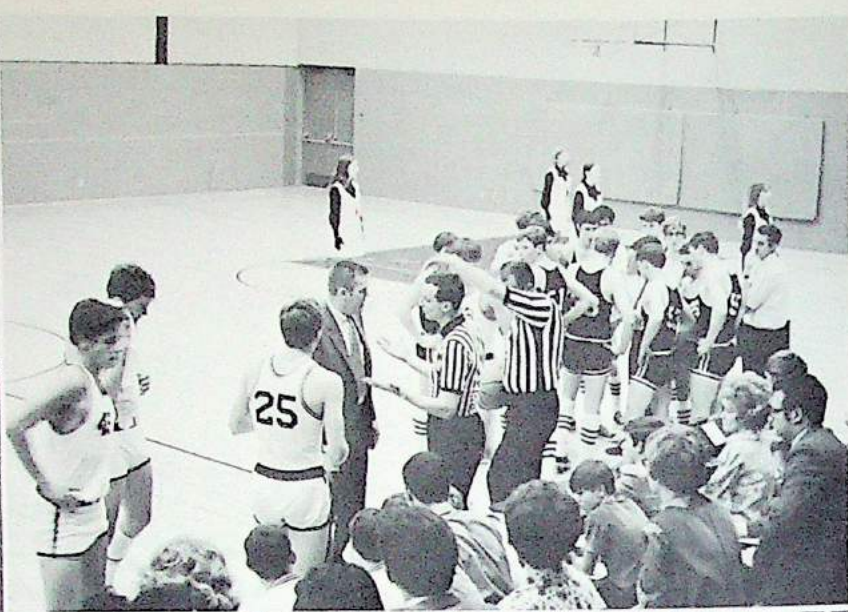

76-63 and 80-64 victories helped drop CCHS to their doom as BDH found the bucket more often than against any other opponent.

A low-scoring 47-39 loss at Portland Christian was countered late in February. The Falcons needed a victory to stay alive for state competition, and got it, 54-51. It was the end of a seven-game frustration for BDH. However, the Falcons missed the playoffs by one game.

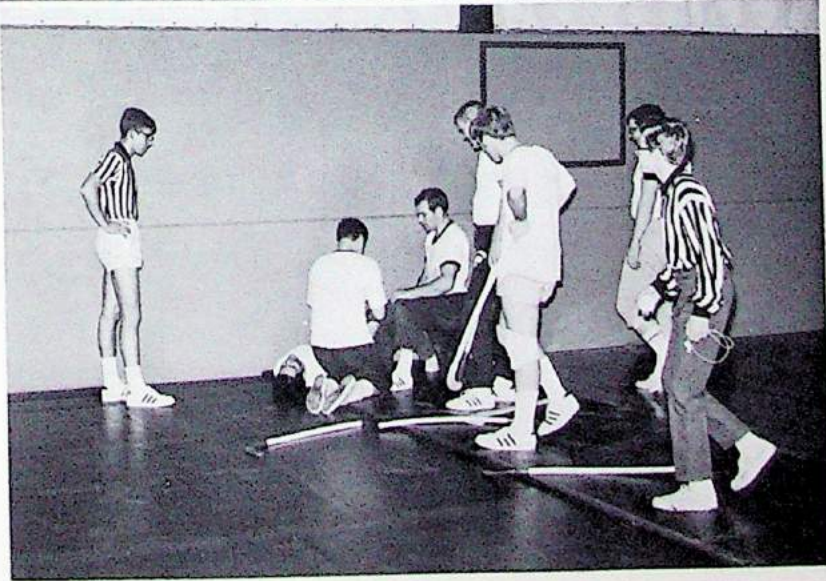

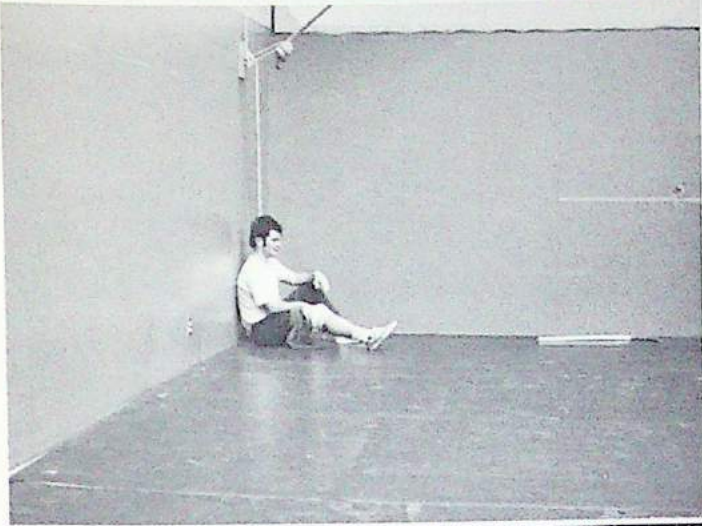

The team included Greg Amerson, George Rector, Alan Dappen, Marshall Spencer, Brad Allen, Jim Stipe, Kris Hatcher, Mike Russell, Warren Cox, Ed Haessler, Scott Bogue, and Bill Lake.

Fred Wood

In these days of radical ventures it is seldom that an organization as tradition bound and as dedicated to principle as the LBC will be found. When others faltered the LBC stood strong. When others stumbled the LBC marched on. When others hesitated the LBC spoke forth. It was not an easy task, but then what are tasks when principle is involved.

A law higher than events called them: Ken Sakai, Ted Thomas, Chris Smith, Paul Schlesinger, Norman Frink. Even now the names ring out with a special tone. And let us not forget their advisor, Fred Wood. No words are satisfactory.

No other club had that inner rapport, spirit if you will, that the LBC had. No other could boast the talent and potential that this club could. But then no other club was this club.

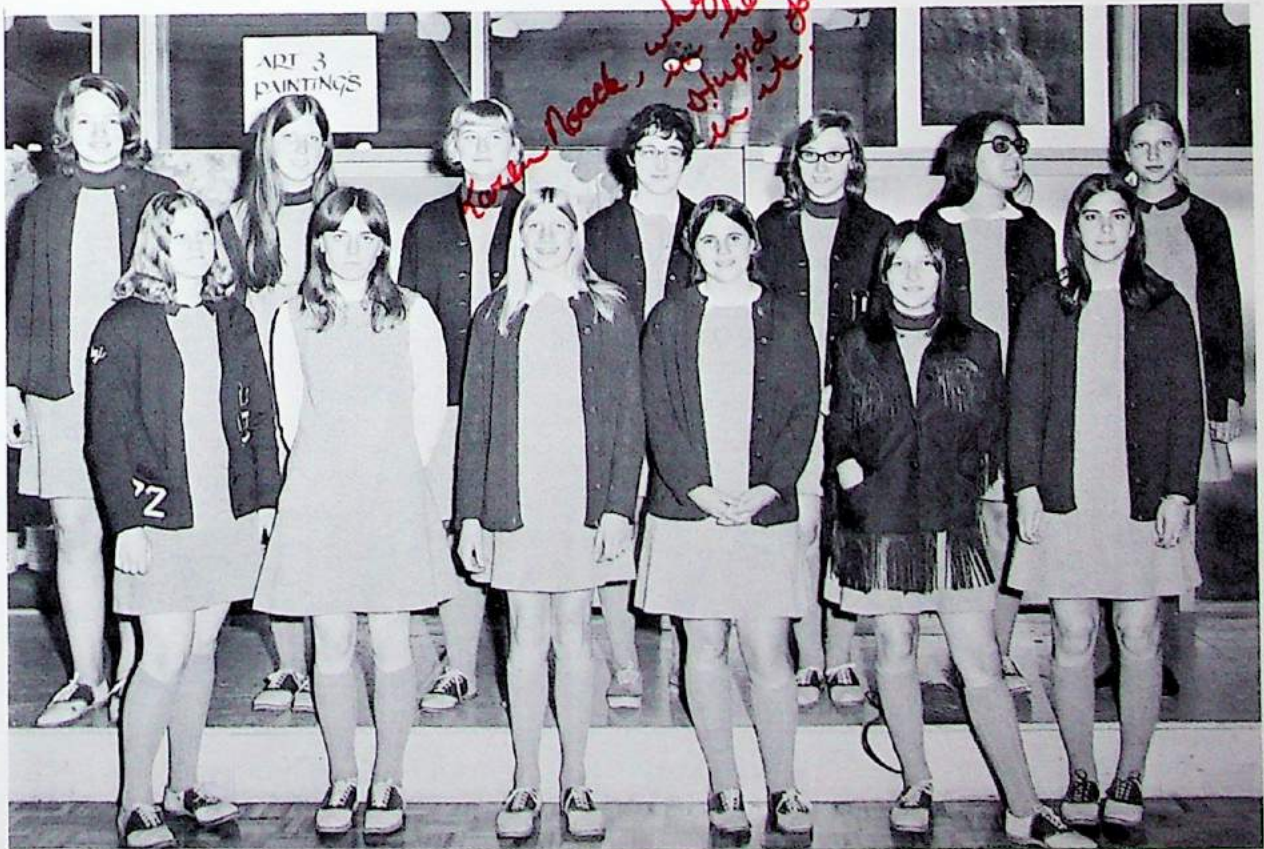

As Churchill said, "Never have so many, owed so few, so much."

Hallmark

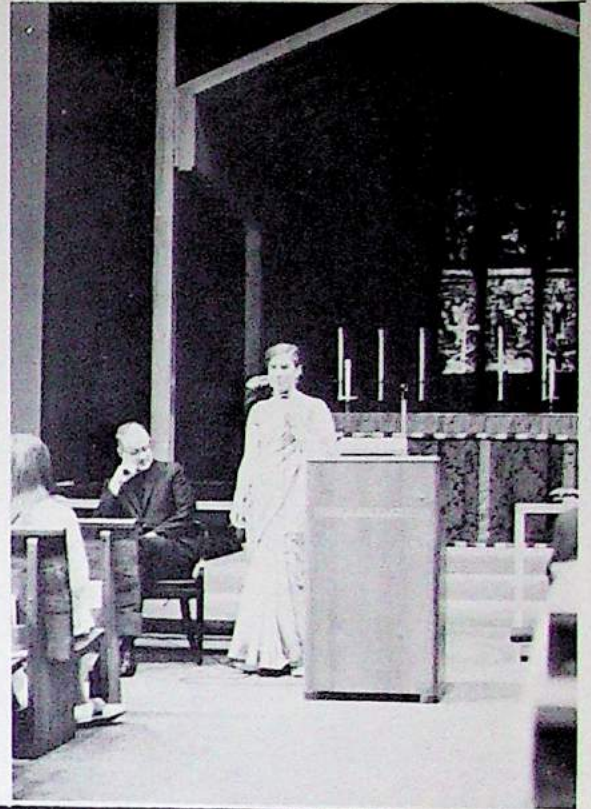

The year has been one of great change at this school. I think the Hallmark, as a student newspaper, has both encouraged this change and reflected it. At the same time, I would like to believe, we have established the type of tradition of quality and responsibility which is important in any organization.

Students made the Hallmark; without them it couldn't have succeeded. Kathy Reynolds was invaluable as assistant editor. Trenton Morrow worked continuously and diligently. Todd Follett traced symbols through the world of films. Ted Thomas told us what his answer was. Shannon Fears viewed the foul play of athletics. Randy Ray became permanently attached to his camera. And Nadine Christenson, forever, became connected with the Girl of the Month tradition. There were also such feature writers as Scott Bogue, Mark Bocek, Christopher Birkmeyer, Paul Schlesinger and Alan Rayspen. Finally, there was the advisor, Mr. Wood, who succeeded in a difficult position.

It was a group which did something well and that made their activity important.

THE WILL TO SUCCEED:

"Ours is, by far, the greatest and most powerful nation the world has ever witnessed. It is characterized by wealth, involved in struggle and strained by its own growth. But most of all it lays bare the brightest of vistas for personal as well as collective achievement. And for the most part, this wealth of opportunity is directly related to our unique and dynamic system of free enterprise. For it is this system which enables each of us to work for and to reach the goals of our maximum potential.

As the future leaders of our nation the following quotation offers an enlightening picture of what awaits you.

'Success . . . does not depend upon genius. Any young man of ordinary intelligence who is normally sound and not afraid to work should succeed in spite of obstacles and handicaps if he plays the game fairly and keeps everlastingly at it.'

—J. C. Penney

And so it is. As America's youth, you stand at the crossroads of achievement and success. Our system permits it. Only your determination will reach it."

ERRATA

Personal to Susan Humphrey: Please excuse the placement of your picture, but there was a minor mix up with the photographer which had to be corrected at the last minute . . . There are no Student Council pictures due to general incompetence, however we do acknowledge the existence of such an organization . . . Because of the light-fingered inhabitants of the dormitories we must apologize for having no Centennial section . . . Other Student pictures may seem to be out of place alphabetically, but that is merely a figment of your imagination . . . We hope the faculty will understand the lack of suitable pictures and funds has caused their section to be highly condensed . . . There may be other various and sundry mistakes not specifically included (as pictures cut and/or placed crookedly) that we hope you will excuse on the grounds of the excellent coordination of our staff . . .

In our attempt to put forth a vague idea of a yearbook using the resources at hand we may have failed in many ways, but we hope that you will appreciate the effort and thought that was put into this marvelous creation . . .

May we also make a suggestion to Student Councils of the future to pick those who are willing to work to head the yearbook, not necessarily those who are experienced. Thank you for your patience.

The Staff

Congratulations on the sportsmanship award! Keep up your tennis! Sharon Wilhelms

Joan you're a pretty cool person even though I didn't get to know you as well, but I had a lot of fun ~~see ya~~ so be good and maybe see ya next year. Congratulations to the award man! Murray (Thoeni)

Joan - Well next year should be a good one for you. How about a little bit - you'll be a good girl! Keanne

To Joan, Have a wild summer - See you next year! Martha Ann

Joan - Hope things have gone well for you this year. You've been very nice to me and I think we can be pretty good friends next year, okay? Be good over the summer and take care. Love, Shannon
