THE ETERNAL SEA

The traditions and ideals of ST. HELEN'S HALL are as ageless as the sea. As the waves rolling in on the beach carry the grains of sand to far away lands, the girls come year after year to gain strength and purpose to carry with them throughout their lives.

RUTH ROSE RICHARDSON

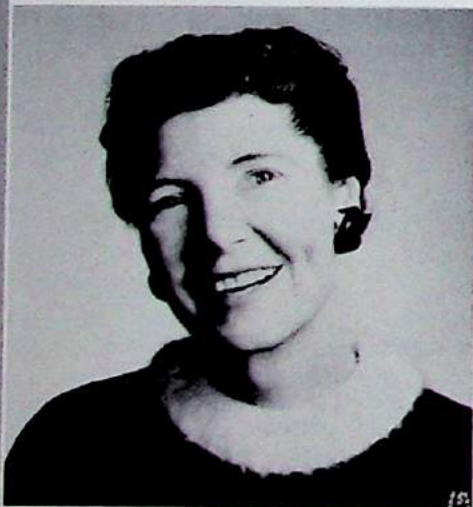

DEDICATION

The Class of 1958 proudly dedicates this issue of the DELPHIC to one who has given unselfish service and constant inspiration to all of us who have worked with her. Her long and loyal devotion to the Hall — its high academic standards, its precious traditions, and its moral and spiritual ideals — has set an example in our hearts and minds. She is a teacher, an adviser, a confidant, and a friend, whose unfailing help has made this annual possible and whose rare sense of humor has made working on it both a privilege and a pleasure which we shall always remember and cherish. With heartfelt admiration and affection we honor in this way one who has given to us so much of herself — Ruth Rose Richardson.

GERTRUDE HOUK FARISS

As the tide influences life upon the beach, so our administrators and faculty govern and guide us through our school days. They are the ones to whom we turn for aid, counsel, and advice.

Alumnae Award

DAGWELL CUP

The Dagwell Cup is presented by the Bishop at the Helenas Chapel to the upperclass girl who has tried through her everyday life to exemplify Christian character. The recipient is chosen by the students, faculty, and administrative staff.

MARY RODNEY AWARD

Each year on Class Day the Mary Rodney Award is presented to a graduating senior selected by the principal and faculty. The award, named after the first principal of the school, is given to the girl who best reflects the qualities of character and decorum which are the established standards of the "Hall."

ALUMNAE AWARD

The oldest, and hence one of the most cherished honors of the Hall, is the Alumnae Award. It is presented by the Alumnae Association upon the recommendation of the principal and faculty to the graduating senior who has demonstrated sound scholarship, constructive leadership, selfless school service, and loyalty to school ideals and traditions.

FINE ARTS PROGRAM

Renewing an old tradition, the students gave a Fine Arts program with music, singing and a play of love fantasy, Poor Maddelena, in March. Martha Boyer played Pierrette; Jo Winslow, Pierrot; and Sheila Fink, Bumbu.

OPEN HOUSE

Open House gives all the parents and friends of the Hall the opportunity to meet the teachers and to see the various class activities in which the girls participate.

OLD GIRL-NEW GIRL TEA

September marks the opening of school with the Old Girl-New Girl Tea where lasting acquaintances are made and renewed.

DANCES

FROSTED FANTASY

Sparkling snowflakes and glittering boughs carried out the blue and silver theme of "Frosted Fantasy," the winter formal annually given by the seniors.

BERMUDA HOP

Warm weather or not, Bermudas were the style at the "Bermuda Hop" sponsored by the junior class, as the First dance of the fall, and finale to the Red Letter Week. Sue Stevens reigned as the Belle of St. Helen's.

SWEETHEARTS' SWIRL

Among the myriads of hearts danced the happy couples at the "Sweethearts' Swirl," reigned over by the King of Hearts and his court.

DINNERS

THE FATHER-DAUGHTER
DINNER

A "Sweethearts" theme created the atmosphere for the annual Father-Daughter Dinner in February with the guest speaker The Hon. James T. Brand, Justice of Oregon Supreme Court. Additional entertainment was provided by a Young Oregonian Troupe and a group of the Mothers.

CHRISTMAS
DINNER

Presents, laughter and songs were all a part of the Christmas Dinner when Santa Claus paid St. Helen's Hall a visit.

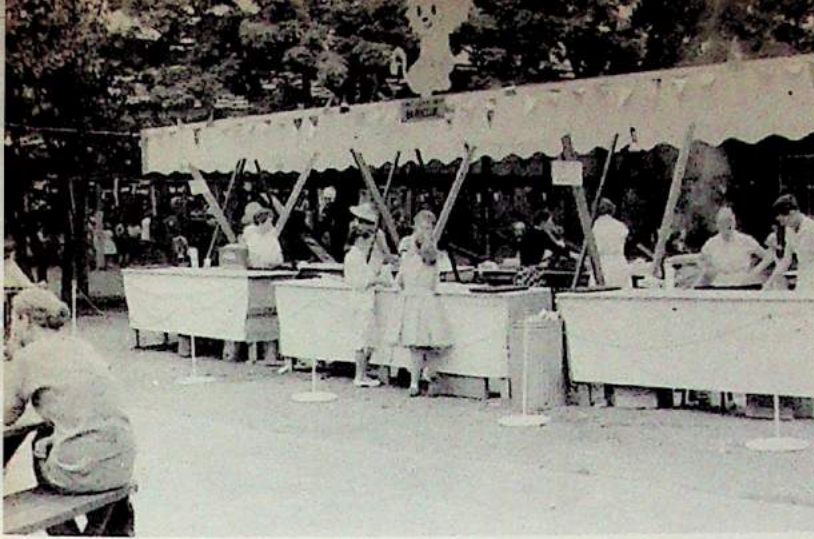

Standing: Princesses Susan Carroll, Linda Dumas, Mistress of Ceremonies Helen Beecher, Princesses Renee Warren, Nancy Walden.

Seated: Princess Lucy Jones, Queen Nola Binnicker, Princess Gael Close.

MAY FETE

Spring was officially initiated into our school by our May Fete ceremony. The theme, "Miracle in May," was carried out this year by six princesses in pastel shades of chiffon. The ceremony was opened with the presentation of the queen and her court by Mistress of Ceremonies, Helen Beecher. A royal program followed consisting of singing, dancing and choral reading. The Queen, Nola Binnicker, led her royal subjects in dancing at Scadding Hall, which was gayly decorated with colorful umbrellas and bright spring flowers.

HOBBY SHOW

The fifth annual Hobby Show, sponsored by the alumnae and parents groups of the school, was presented May 9 and 10. For this weekend the school was transformed into a gay carnival spirit, following its theme, "Circus Daze."

Clowning chimpanzees and gymnasts contrasted with the traditional showing of antiques and private collections . . . highlighted this year by trophies from famed Asian and African big game hunts.

But the bargain hunter and the hungry were not forgotten. Mementos, weird and practical, were offered to the shoppers, while the hungry could take their choice of Danish or Chinese delicacies, or the American Hot Dog.

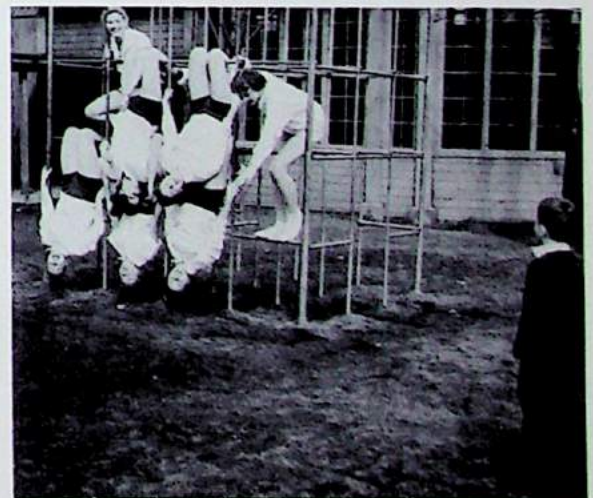

After the fun-filled and frantic weekend, the weary parents and students trudged home, grateful for another successful show whose profits would provide those "extra" school improvements.

ATHLETICS

Winter sports are confined to indoor volleyball games and other gym activities, although many of the girls find skiing on Mt. Hood a stimulating exercise during the winter week ends. Spring, naturally, brings basketball, swimming and horseback riding. But all year round the girls enjoy the spirit of healthy competition and teamwork in an atmosphere of good sportsmanship.

SCHOOL

BENJI

TEAM I

This year a mascot was introduced into the school. Team I won the competition in making a papier-mache lion which was affectionately christened "Benji Dee" after our Bishop, Benjamin D. Dagwell. During the year rivalry has been keen to see which team could keep "Benji" hidden the longest.

TEAM III

TEAMS

ATHLETIC MANAGERS

TEAM II

School teams, which were organized this year, have helped create school spirit, not only in athletics but in fund drives, and upholding the standards of the Hall. In charge of the teams were Pat Nelson and Eleanor River, who arranged for competition and the points given to each team.

TEAM IV

Standing: Gael Close, Helen Beecher, Miss Campbell, adviser, Dorothy Wise, Lucy Jones, Pat Nelson.

Seated: Sue Stevens, Judy Carson, Linda Dumas, president, Martha Boyer, Adele Fink.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Another successful year for the Student Council has been completed under the able guidance of Miss Irene Campbell. Again the chosen representatives of the student body have tried to act as a link between the administrative staff and the girls in order to uphold the standards and ideals of the school. Beside sending representatives to various regional conferences and the summer workshop, this student governing body sponsored the Student Council week, school teams, and presented the May Fete Coronation and Dance.

BOARDERS' COUNCIL

Standing: Sue Davis, Jo Winslow, Terry Harwick, Martha Boyer, Helen Beecher.
Seated: Susan Carroll, Lucy Jones, President, Mrs. Strahan, adviser, Nancy Walden, president, Claudia Welch.

Boarders' Council, the governing body for the resident students, works with the administration in making and carrying out rules and regulations, which create a harmonious living atmosphere. Among the other activities of the council were the annual Birthday Dinner, the costume Halloween Dinner, the Thanksgiving Dinner, and an informal Boarders' Dance.

Creating a greater interest in social service, the Junior Red Cross Council, under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, completed a year of worthwhile projects. Among these were the collections of toys and books for needy families at Christmas and the filling of a gift chest for disaster areas in cooperation with Catlin and Jefferson. The Council also sponsored an enrollment drive with movies and assemblies, and food sales as money-making activities. Each year delegates are selected for the Junior Red Cross Leadership Training Center.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

Standing: Lee Ann Alfred, Marilyn Bunte, Judy Carson, Evelyn French, Shannon Tucker, Claudia Welch, Suzanne Leupold, Helen Beecher, Claudia Hambrick.
Seated: Susan Carroll, Margo Pfeifer, Lucy Jones, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, adviser, Martha Boyer, president, Lindy Samuelson, Roberta Wright.

GLEE CLUB

The B \sharp Club, directed by Mrs. Carolyn Harrington, has provided the school with music in the daily chapel services and at all the major school functions. It has performed at the Christmas Program, the Fine Arts Program and the May Fete.

The name of our annual, Delphic, comes from the Oracle of Delphi where Apollo, the god of light and music, gave sage advice to all who came. This year's staff, under the direction of Miss Richardson, has worked loyally to gather all the faces, happy memories and traditions, into one book which will serve as a lasting reminder to each girl of her experiences.

DELPHIC STAFF

Seated: Susan Carroll, Pat Nelson, Nola Binnicker, Lucy Jones, Linda Dumas, Jo Winslow.

Standing: Adele Fink, Sheila Fink, Alice Harrington, Eleanor River, Nancy Walden, Susie Cloyes, Gael Close, Roberta Wright, Barbara Christenson, Renee Warren.

HELENAS

Seated: Linda Dumas, Miss McKirdie, adviser, Karen Moe, Martha Boyer, Dorothy Wise.

Standing: Gael Close, president, Adele Fink, Eleanor River, Lucy Jones, Pat Nelson.

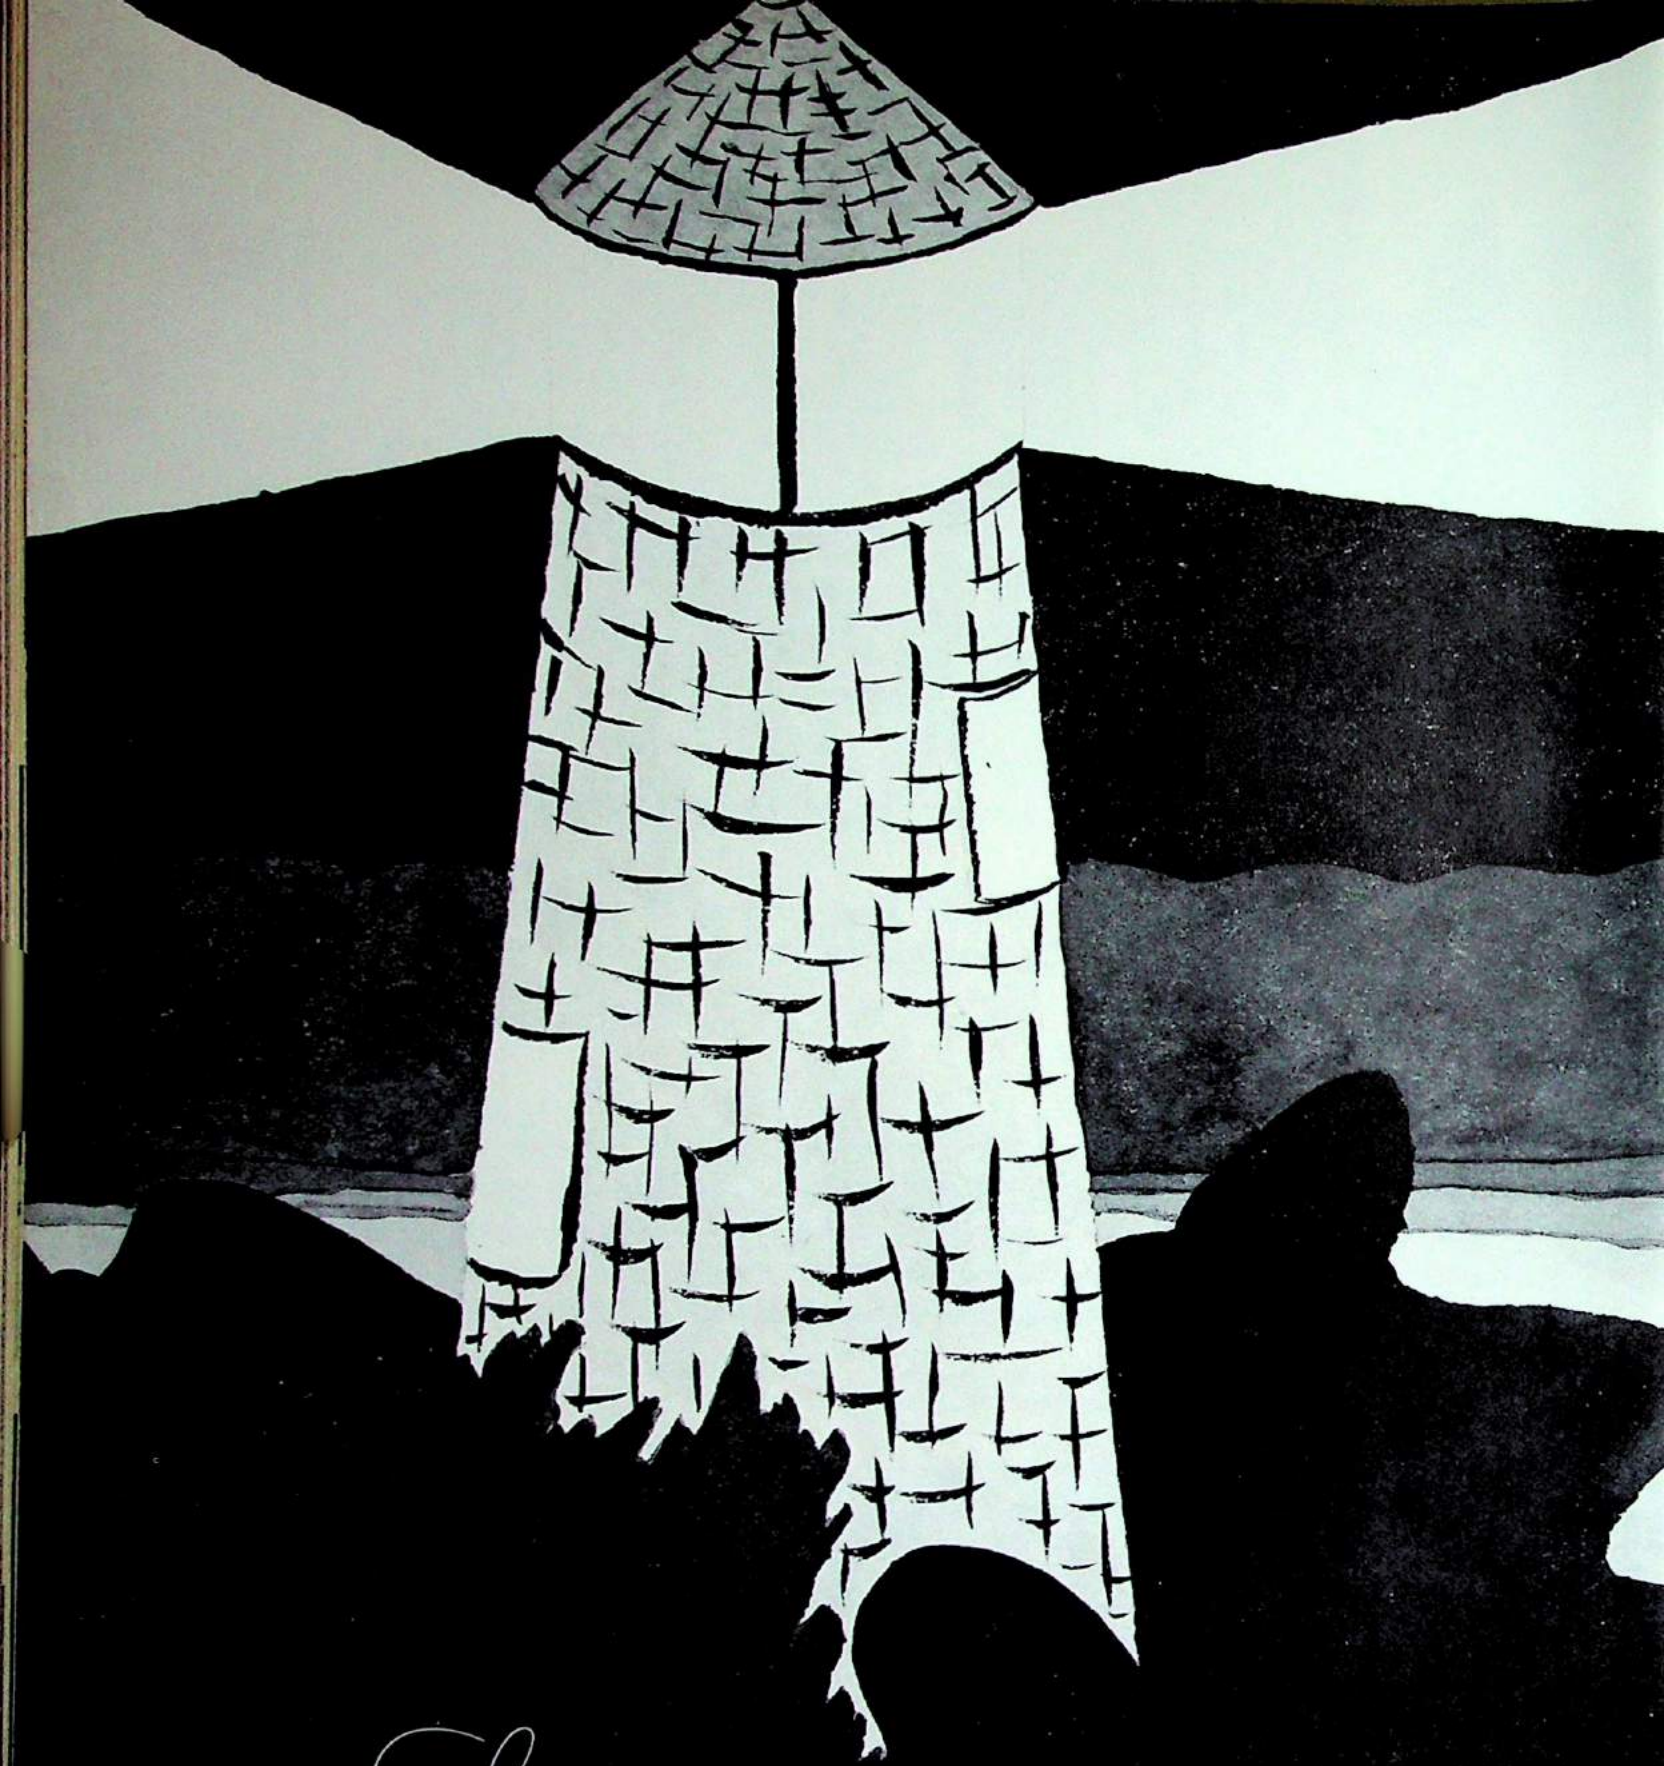

Not Pictured: Shelia Fink.

Helenas is a society which honors those girls who maintain a high standing in scholarship, who have shown leadership and who have proved their willingness to serve the school. This year the girls have served primarily in the library. A study of the school's past and of its traditions was begun at the society's meetings, where Miss Caroline Paige and Miss Katherine Arnold, alumnae of St. Helen's Hall, spoke of the Hall as they knew it as students and teachers.

CHAPEL—

Each morning the students begin their day by a chapel service in the hope that by prayer and praise to God they may be guided throughout the day with the inward peace and quiet conscience of a Christian.

MORNING PROCESSIONAL

The Helenas members have the honor of carrying the Cross and flags which precede the choir in the daily chapel service.

MARY AWARD

The Mary Award is given each year to a junior or senior who best exemplifies the dignity and humility attributed to the Virgin Mary. The girl is chosen by the students, faculty and household staff. She has the honor of playing the part of the Virgin in the Christmas play . . . This year Claudia Welch was selected.

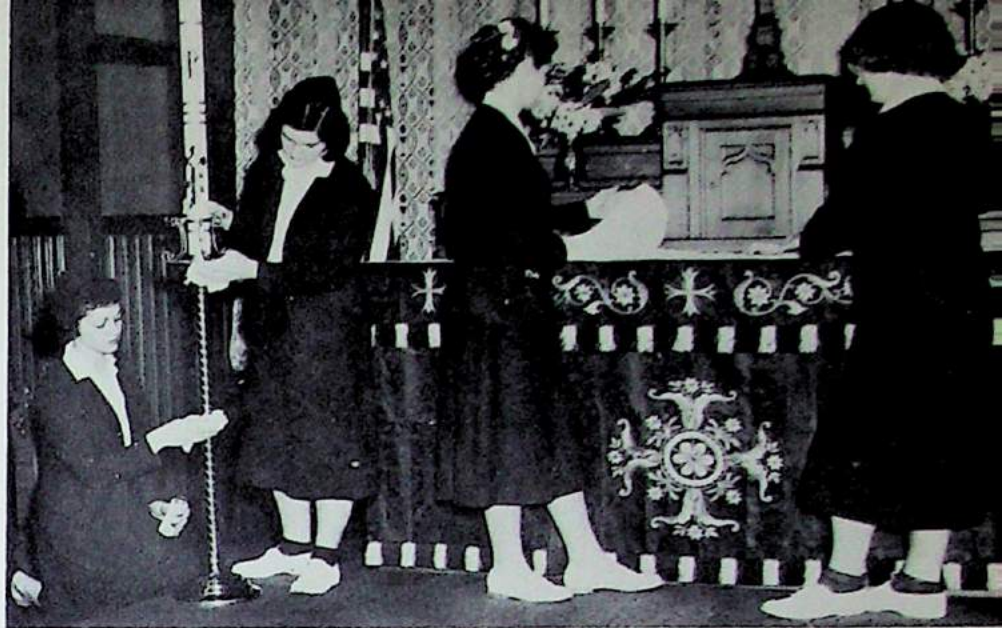

Mrs. James W. F. Carman, wife of our Bishop Coadjutor; Claudia Welch, winner of the Mary Award; and the Rev. R. A'Court Simmonds, Sometime Chaplain of the Hall. This year Father Simmonds presented Mrs. Carman and Claudia Welch with individual Madonnas which he had carved and painted.

THE HEART OF THE SCHOOL

ALTAR GUILD

As a new organization this year at the Hall, the ALTAR GUILD, under the guidance of Miss Caroline Paige, has enjoyed a successful year with a large membership. Many girls have welcomed the opportunity to serve in caring for the Sanctuary. Among the duties of the guild are polishing brass, laundering linens, caring for vestments and arranging flowers for the services.

THE CHRISTMAS PLAY

A Shepherd's Star, beautifully written and skillfully enacted by the members of the drama class, brought the solemnity of the true meaning of Christmas to us all.

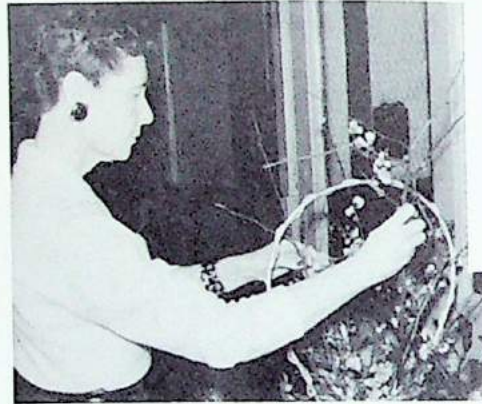

WAVES

The background of the page is an abstract composition of dark, textured, organic shapes. These shapes, which vary in shades from deep black to dark charcoal, are layered and overlap, creating a sense of depth and movement. The overall effect is reminiscent of ink splatters or layered paper cutouts. The word 'CLASSES' is printed in white on the upper right portion of the page, partially overlapping the dark shapes.

One of the most active and enthusiastic groups this year was the sophomore class. Meeting with financial success in their various sales, including mistletoe, yarn octupi, apples and even themselves as slaves for a day, they went on to sponsor the Valentine dance, "Sweethearts' Swirl." Could one attribute their sense of humor and industriousness to their adviser, Miss Richardson?

A whirlwind of activities filled the juniors' schedule this year, starting with Red Letter Week and the sales of hats, food and votes for the Belle of St. Helen's, winding up with the Red Letter Dance, the informal "Bermuda Hop." They also feted the seniors at the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom, both held at Piluso's. Under the direction of Mrs. Johnson, adviser, ambition and gaiety marked this class as headed for a wonderful senior year.

SENIORS

A flurry of caps and gowns, goodbyes and promises to meet again, ended the final year at St. Helen's Hall for the seniors. The sale of food, octupi and school supplies, and auctions all helped raise money for the Christmas formal, "Frosted Fantasy," and the senior gift to the school. May the scholastic accomplishments, traditions and Christian standards they have gained guide them through life.

SENIORS IN GREY ROBES

Spring semester the seniors don grey robes and mortar boards on Fridays, signifying the approach to commencement.

TRINITY CHURCH, the scene of graduation for the girls of St. Helen's Hall, blends all its dignity to the strains of Pomp and Circumstance, signifying the close of another year.

BEHOLD US, GRACIOUS SAVIOUR

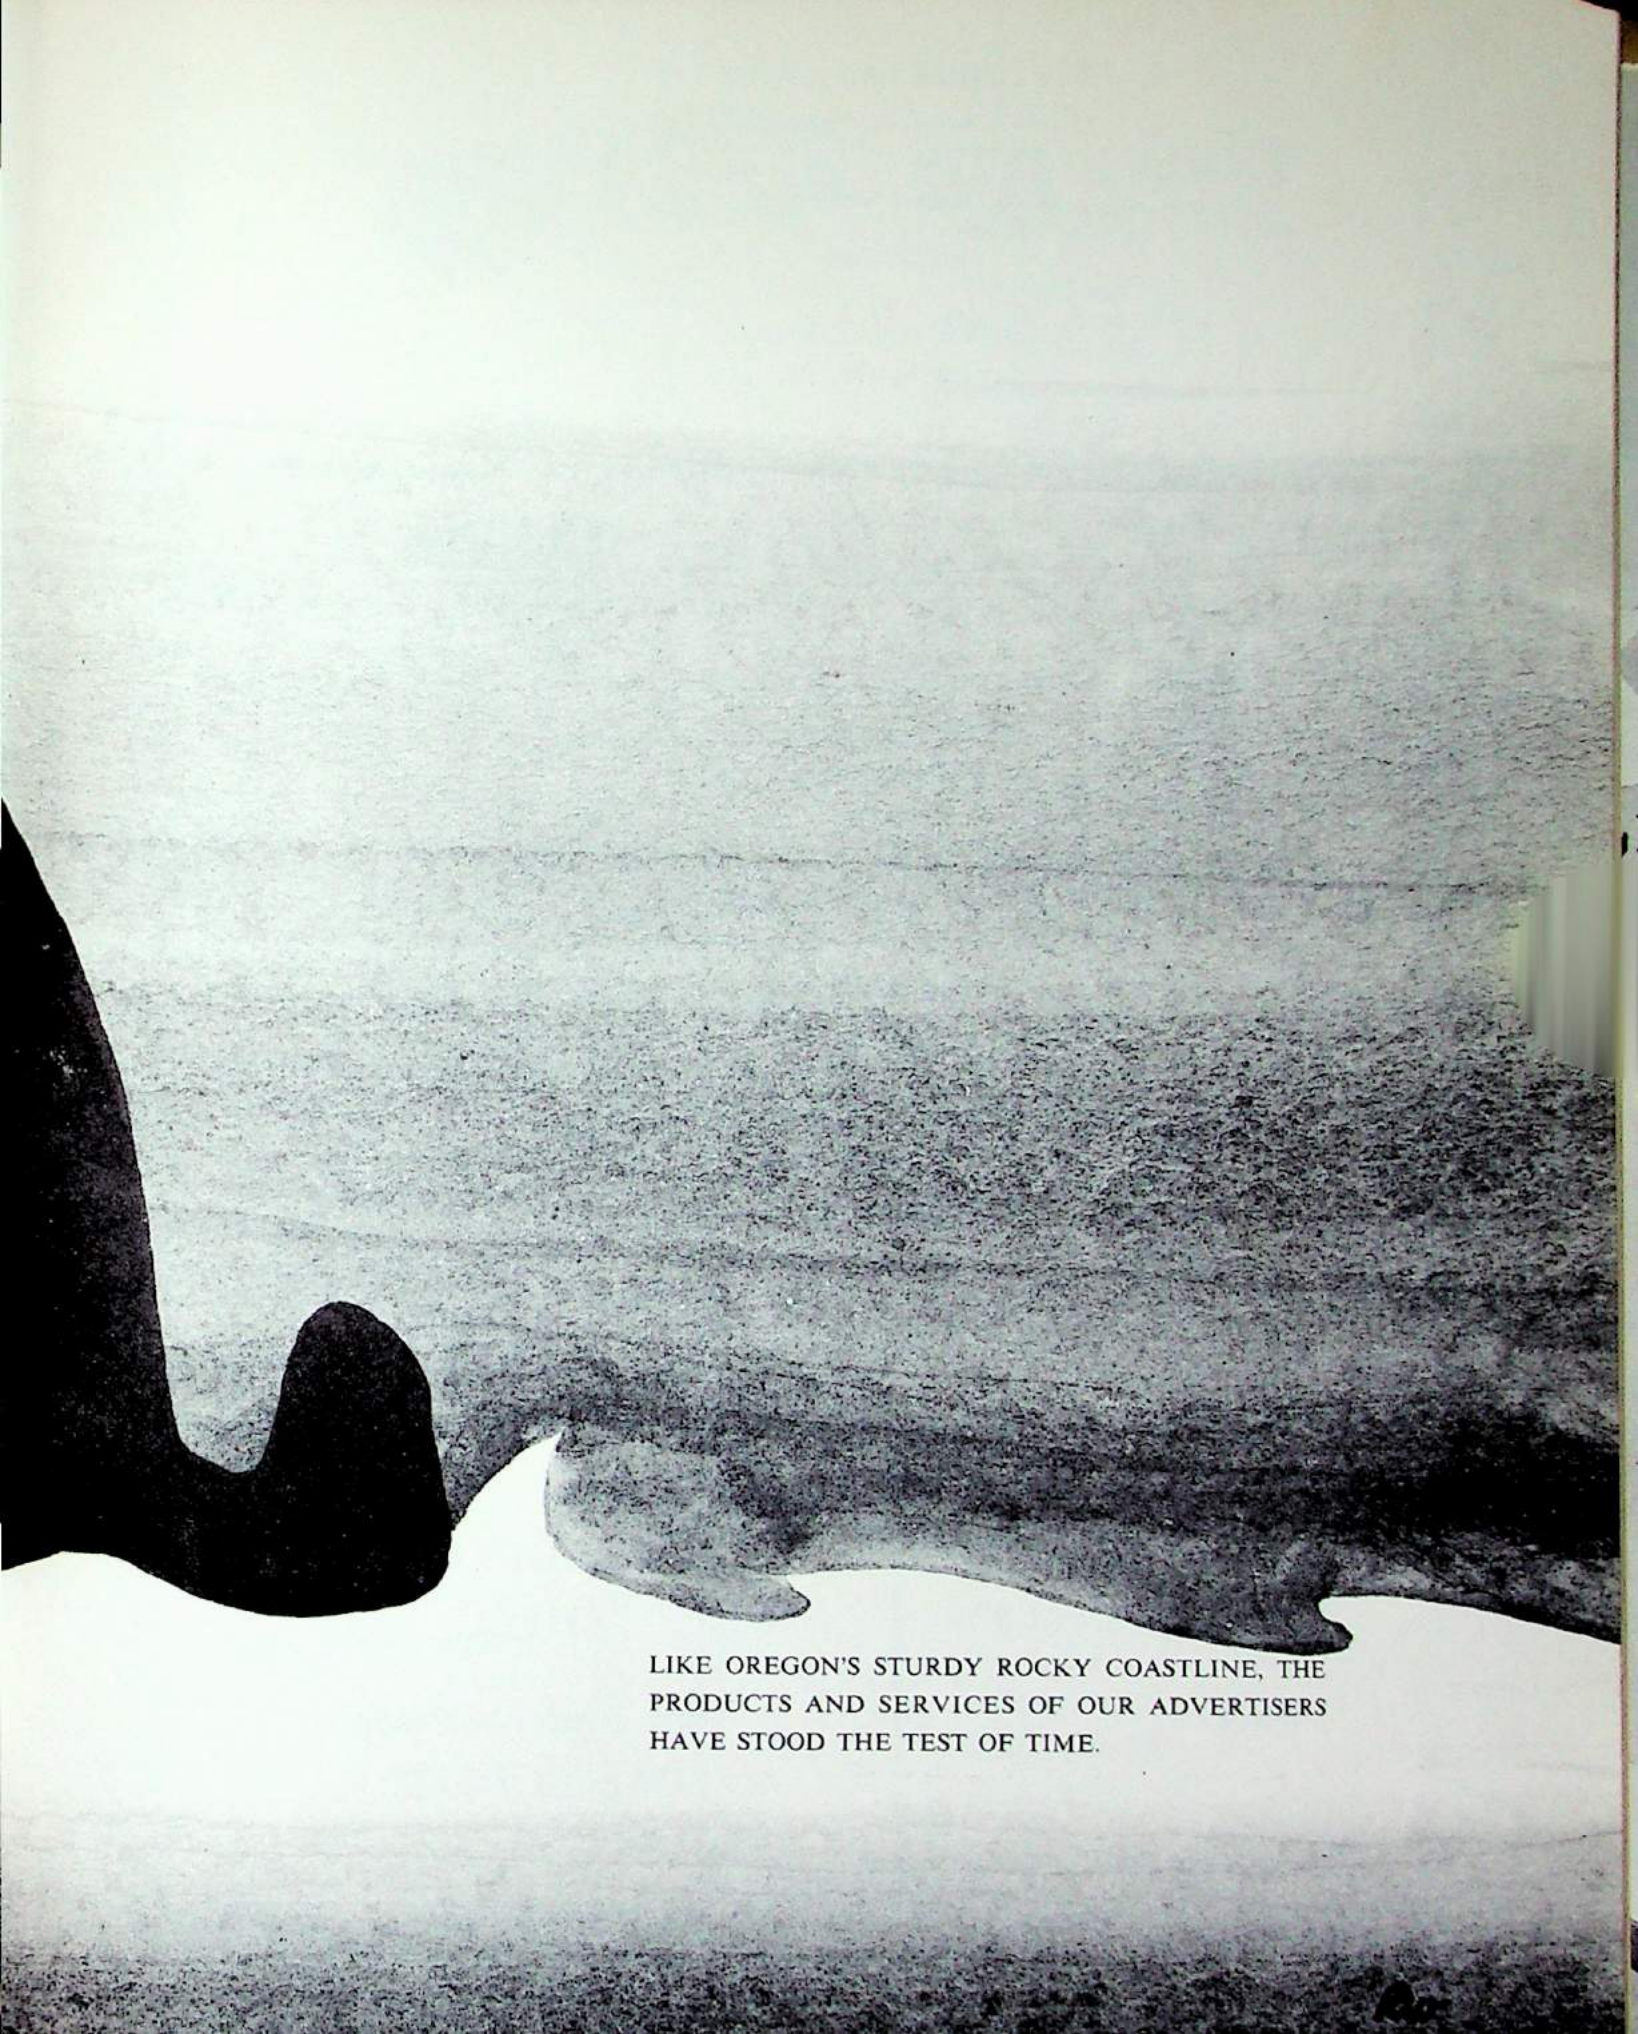

Behold us, gracious Saviour,
In girlhood's morning bright —
Look on us in Thy mercy,
And guide us with Thy light.
Life's journey lies before us,
Go with us all the way,
So shall we love Thee truly,
And serve Thee day by day.

Those gathered here together
Will soon be far apart,
But in Thy love and service
Unite us heart to heart,
And keep us pure and loyal
Where e'er our lot may be,
True daughters of St. Helen's
And true our God to Thee.

So when Thou comest in glory
To gather in Thine own,
And we shall stand for judgment
Before Thy great White Throne.
Then place us at Thy right hand.
And hearken to our prayer,
Of all St. Helen's daughters
Let none be missing there!
